

CHAP. 95.—An act granting a pension to George W. Jones.

June 7, 1892.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll the name of George W. Jones, of Dubuque, Iowa, on account of services as a drummer boy in the volunteer company of Captain William Lynn, at Saint Genevieve, Missouri, in eighteen hundred and fourteen; and also on account of services as aid-de-camp to General Henry Dodge in the Black Hawk war, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, and pay him a pension of twenty dollars per month.

Approved, June 7, 1892.

George W. Jones.
Pension.

CHAP. 96.—An act granting a pension to Ellen Maguire.

June 7, 1892.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to place upon the pension roll, at twelve dollars per month, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Ellen Maguire, mother of Thomas Maguire, late a private in Company B, First Regiment, Massachusetts Cavalry.

Approved, June 7, 1892.

Ellen Maguire.
Pension.

CHAP. 97.—An act granting a pension to Esther Doolittle.

June 7, 1892.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, at the rate of twelve dollars per month, the name of Esther Doolittle, a hospital nurse during the civil war.

Approved, June 7, 1892.

Esther Doolittle.
Pension.

CHAP. 98.—An act granting a pension to Sarah L. Henderson.

June 7, 1892.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, at the rate of twelve dollars per month, the name of Sarah L. Henderson, a hospital nurse during the civil war.

Approved, June 7, 1892.

Sarah L. Henderson.
Pension.

CHAP. 99.—An act to pension Jane Allen.

June 7, 1892.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension rolls, subject to the provisions and regulations of the general pension laws, at the rate of twelve dollars per month, the name of Jane Allen, of Ogdensburg, stepmother of Edwin W. Allen of Company D, Eighty-third Regiment New York Volunteers.

Approved, June 7, 1892.

Jane Allen.
Pension.