CHAP. 109.—An act for the relief of S. J. Brooks.

S. J. Brooks. Pay, etc., to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to pay S. J. Brooks, late second lieutenant in the twenty-fifth Regiment of Ohio Veteran Volunteer Infantry, the three months pay proper granted to all officers of volunteers then in commission below the rank of brigadier-general who continued in the service until the close of the war, by act of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, it being a fact that said S. J. Brooks was commissioned a second lieutenant on the twentieth day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and was on duty as such from and after that date, but owing to the exigencies of the service could not be mustered into his new grade until about March twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.
