AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

CHAP. 101.—An Act Granting an increase of pension to Sarah E. Comly, widow of Major Clifton Comly. January 27, 1897.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Sarah E. Comly, widow of Major Clifton Comly, and pay her a pension of thirty-five dollars per month, the same to be in lieu of the pension now drawn by her. Sarah E. Comly. Pension increased.

Approved, January 27, 1897.

CHAP. 102.—An Act Granting a pension to Richard Brookins. January 27, 1897.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, at the rate of twelve dollars per month, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Richard Brookins, who served under that name in Troops M and H of the Ninth Regiment of United States Cavalry, and under the name of Dick Spencer in Company K, One hundred and twenty-third United States Colored Infantry. Richard Brookins, alias Dick Spencer. Pension.

Approved, January 27, 1897.

CHAP. 103.—An Act Granting a pension to Fanny Moale Gibbon. January 27, 1897.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Fanny Moale Gibbon, widow of Major-General John Gibbon, United States Army, and pay her a pension at the rate of one hundred dollars per month from and after the passage of this Act. Fanny Moale Gibbon. Pension.

Approved, January 27, 1897.

CHAP. 104.—An Act Granting a pension to Susan E. Cunningham. January 27, 1897.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll the name of Susan E. Cunningham, totally and permanently blind, daughter of Thomas Cunningham, late private, Company F, Fourth Regiment New York Heavy Artillery, at the rate of twelve dollars a month. Susan E. Cunningham. Pension.

Approved, January 27, 1897.

CHAP. 105.—An Act For the relief of John Keefe. January 27, 1897.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to John Keefe, of Syracuse, New York, the sum of two hundred and twenty dollars, in John Keefe. Payment to.