CHAP. 576.—An Act To remove the charge of desertion against John Phelon, deceased. March 3, 1899.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to remove the charge of desertion now standing in the records against John Phelon, deceased, late a member of Company C, Third Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, and of Company F, Second Battalion of the Fifteenth Regiment of United States Infantry, and to issue an honorable discharge from the last-named service: Provided, That no pay, bounty, or other emoluments shall become due or payable by virtue of the passage of this Act.

John Phelon. Granted honorable discharge.

Proviso. No pay, etc.

Approved, March 3. 1899.

CHAP. 577.—An Act To remove the charge of desertion against James J. Fluke. March 3, 1899.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and hereby is, authorized and directed to remove the charge of desertion against James J. Fluke, late member of Battery D, First United States Artillery, and grant him an honorable discharge as of date January twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three: Provided, That no pay, bounty, or other allowances shall become due or payable by virtue of the passage of this Act.

James J. Fluke. Granted honorable discharge.

Proviso. No pay, etc.

Approved, March 3, 1899.

CHAP. 578.—An Act For the relief of Julius C. Kloenne. March 3, 1899.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to correct the record of Julius C. Kloenne, late captain of Company K, Seventeenth Indiana Infantry Volunteers, whom the record shows was mustered out of service in that regiment on the twenty-third day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, so that the same will show him to have been honorably discharged and mustered out with leave and for the purpose of recruiting and organizing other troops in the State of Indiana, and that said record be so changed and corrected instead of the record now made.

Julius C. Kloenne. Honorable discharge.

SEC. 2. That said Julius C. Kloenne be, and is hereby, declared entitled to pay as captain in said regiment from the date of the last payment made to him up to the date of his discharge as aforesaid.

Pay.

Approved, March 3, 1899.
