AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

CHAP. 194.—An Act Granting an increase of pension to George C. Snyder. April 17, 1900.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of George C. Snyder, late first lieutenant of Company I, One hundred and ninety-ninth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and pay him a pension at the rate of thirty-five dollars per month in lieu of that he is now receiving. George C. Snyder. Pension increased.

Approved, April 17, 1900.

CHAP. 195.—An Act Granting an increase of pension to George W. Wakefield. April 17, 1900.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of George W. Wakefield, late of Company I, Twenty-seventh Regiment Maine Volunteer Infantry, and Company L, Second Regiment Maine Volunteer Cavalry, and pay him a pension at the rate of twenty-four dollars per month in lieu of that he is now receiving. George W. Wakefield. Pension increased.

Approved, April 17, 1900.

CHAP. 196.—An Act Granting an increase of pension to Jesse Smith. April 17, 1900.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of Jesse Smith, late private in Company K, Ninety-sixth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and pay him a pension at the rate of thirty dollars per month in lieu of that he is now receiving. Jesse Smith. Pension increased.

Approved, April 17, 1900.

CHAP. 197.—An Act For the relief of Clare M. Ashby, widow of W. W. Ashby, late United States consul at Colon. April 17, 1900.

Whereas W. W. Ashby, late consul of the United States at Colon, lost his life at his post of duty on the day of , eighteen hundred and ninety-eight: Therefore Clare M. Ashby, etc.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Clare M. Ashby, the widow of W. W. Ashby, the sum of two thousand eight hundred and sixty-six dollars, being the balance of one year's salary. Payment to.

Approved, April 17, 1900.

CHAP. 198.—An Act Granting a pension to Clara L. Harriman. April 17, 1900.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the Clara L. Harriman. Pension.