RESOLUTIONS.

December 6, 1901.
[Pub. Res., No. 1.]

[No. 1.] Joint Resolution Allowing the importation free of payment of duty, customs fees, or charges, of all articles from foreign countries, and the transfer of foreign exhibits from the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo for the purpose of exhibition at the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition, at Charleston, South Carolina.

South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition, Charleston, S. C.
Exemption from duty of imported exhibits.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all articles which shall be imported from foreign countries, for the purpose of exhibition at the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition at Charleston, South Carolina, upon which there shall be a tariff or customs duty, and all foreign exhibits which shall be transferred in bond from the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, New York, shall be admitted free of payment of duty, customs fees, or charges, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but it shall be lawful at any time during the Exposition to sell for delivery at the close thereof any goods or property imported for and actually on exhibition in the Exposition building or on the grounds, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of the import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That all such articles, when sold or withdrawn for consumption in the United States, shall be subject to the duty, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws at the date of the importation, and all penalties prescribed by laws shall be applied and enforced against such articles and against the person who may be guilty of any illegal sale or withdrawal: And provided further, That the buildings and spaces set apart for the purpose of the said exposition shall be constituted "Constructive bonded warehouses and yards," and all foreign articles placed therein shall be under customs supervision, and treated as merchandise in bond: And provided further, That all necessary expenses incurred, including salaries of customs officials in charge of imported articles, shall be paid to the Treasury of the United States by the Exposition Company under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.
