Payment to.

CHAP. 3989.—An Act For the relief of James N. Robinson and Sallie B. McComb.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of three thousand two hundred and fifty dollars, to James N. Robinson and Sallie B. McComb, of Marion County, Indiana, on account of damages sustained by them because of the wrongful confiscation by the United States of three hundred and thirty-five acres of land and three hundred dollars in promissory notes, all the property of the said James N. Robinson and Sallie B. McComb, and the sum of three thousand two hundred and fifty dollars is hereby appropriated for such purpose.

Approved, June 30, 1906.
