AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

CHAP. 2872.—An Act For the relief of William H. Gowdy.

March 2, 1907.
[H. R. 4629.]

[Private, No. 2631.]

William H. Gowdy.
Release of sureties of.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Alfred S. Andrew, Leander H. Gowdy, G. Morrison Taylor, C. C. Engleman, Jacob C. McCoy, Orlander F. Ralston, L. W. Ralston, J. R. McKinnie, Henry Chatillon, James M. Parker, F. B. Wortman, Alphonse F. Perrier, and M. A. Dickinson, sureties of William H. Gowdy, late postmaster at Fremont, Moreland, Fremont and Cripple Creek, Colorado, respectively, by bonds to the United States dated August seventh, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety-one; December nineteenth, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety-one; March tenth, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and July eighth, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety-two, be, and they are hereby, released from their liability arising from any deficiency that may have occurred in the accounts of said William H. Gowdy as postmaster during the term covered by the transcripts of accounts from the Treasury Department and from any judgment which may have been obtained thereon in favor of the United States; and the proper officer of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered to direct the cancellation and satisfaction of any and all judgments that may have been rendered against the said William H. Gowdy and the sureties aforesaid upon the said bonds or any of them.

Reimbursement.

SEC. 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to said William H. Gowdy, out of any unappropriated money in the United States Treasury, the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars, being the amount advanced and disbursed by him while acting as such postmaster and being absolutely necessary in performing his duties as such postmaster.

Approved, March 2, 1907.

CHAP. 2873.—An Act To reimburse John Waller, late postmaster at Monticello, New York, for moneys expended in carrying the mails.

March 2, 1907.
[H. R. 6104.]

[Private, No. 2632.]

John Waller.
Reimbursement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay to John Waller, late postmaster at Monticello, New York, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of four hundred and twenty-six dollars and twenty-five cents, to reimburse him for moneys expended in carrying the United States mails and for damages consequent therefrom.

Approved, March 2, 1907.

CHAP. 2874.—An Act For the relief of David McClelland for loss sustained at Chickamauga Park, Georgia, January twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and four.

March 2, 1907.
[H. R. 7153.]

[Private, No. 2633.]

David McClelland.
Payment to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to pay to David McClelland, late draftsman and assistant to the engineer in the Quartermaster's Department, United States Army, stationed at the new military post, Chickamauga Park, Georgia, the sum of one hundred and seventy-one dollars and twenty-one cents for loss of personal property by fire on the morning of January twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and four.

Approved, March 2, 1907.