

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by section two of the Act of Congress, approved June eighth, nineteen hundred and six, entitled, "An Act For the preservation of American antiquities," do proclaim that there are hereby reserved from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, subject to all prior valid adverse claims, and set apart as a National Monument, all the tracts of land, in the State of Colorado, shown as the Wheeler National Monument on the diagram forming a part hereof.

National monument,
Colorado.
Vol. 34, p. 225.

The reservation made by this proclamation is not intended to prevent the use of the lands for forest purposes under the Executive Orders establishing the Rio Grande and Cochetopa National Forests, but the two reservations shall both be effective on the land withdrawn, but the National Monument hereby established shall be the dominant reservation and any use of the land which interferes with its preservation or protection as a National Monument is hereby forbidden.

Forest uses not affected.

Warning is hereby given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, or destroy any feature of this National Monument, or to locate or settle upon any of the lands reserved by this proclamation.

Reserved from settlement, etc.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 7th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight,
[SEAL.] and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-third.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

By the President:
ELIHU ROOT
Secretary of State.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

January 20, 1909.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, an Executive Order signed July Second, nineteen hundred and eight, consolidated the Ruby Mountains and Independence National Forests under the name of the Humboldt National Forest;

Humboldt National Forest, Nev. Preamble. Vol. 34, pp. 3198, 3251.

And whereas, it appears that the public good would be promoted by adding to the Humboldt National Forest, certain lands within the State of Nevada, which are in part covered with timber;

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by the Act of Congress, approved June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled, "An Act Making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and for other purposes," do proclaim that the Humboldt National Forest is hereby enlarged and that its boundaries are as shown on the two parts of the diagram forming a part hereof.

Boundaries enlarged.

Vol. 30, p. 36.

The withdrawal made by this proclamation shall, as to all lands which are at this date legally appropriated under the public land laws or reserved for any public purpose, be subject to, and shall not interfere with or defeat legal rights under such appropriation, nor prevent the use for such public purpose of lands so reserved, so long as such appropriation is legally maintained, or such reservation remains in force.

Prior rights not affected.

Agricultural lands.

Vol. 34, p. 233.

This proclamation shall not prevent the settlement and entry of any lands heretofore opened to settlement and entry under the Act of Congress approved June eleventh, nineteen hundred and six, entitled, "An Act to provide for the entry of Agricultural lands within forest reserves."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 20th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine,
[SEAL.] and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-third.
