

1702 SIXTY-FIRST CONGRESS. SESS. II. CHS. 223, 224, 228, 229. 1910.

property within the military reservation at Zamboanga, formerly the Roman Catholic cemetery used for all burials taking place within the parish of Zamboanga, taken by the United States Government for use in connection with the construction of noncommissioned officers' quarters on said reservation.

Approved, May 9, 1910.

May 9, 1910.
[H. R. 6935.]

[Private, No. 67.]

Merchants' National Bank, Poughkeepsie,
N. Y.
Redemption of duplicate bond held by.
Vol. 16, p. 272.

CHAP. 224.—An Act For the relief of the Merchants' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, New York.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to redeem a certain duplicate United States bond issued in place of a certain United States bond numbered ten thousand three hundred and seven, for ten thousand dollars, under Act of July fourteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy (consols of nineteen hundred and seven), inscribed in the name of the Dutchess County Mutual Insurance Company, and assigned in blank, held by said Merchants' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, New York, and lost or destroyed on or about the twenty-fourth day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty, which said duplicate bond is registered in the name of the Merchants' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, New York.

Appropriation.

SEC. 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay in full redemption and satisfaction of said bond and duplicate to the Merchants' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, New York, out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated, forthwith the sum of ten thousand dollars, together with interest, if any, accrued thereon at four per centum to the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, the date when said bond was called for redemption and payment: Provided, however, That the indemnity bond executed and filed by the Merchants' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, New York, pursuant to the terms of said Act of Congress, passed the twenty-first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, shall stand and remain as a continuing liability to secure the United States from any loss, cost, or damages, or claims made on account of said original bond.

Proviso.
Indemnity bond
continued.
Vol. 25, p. 1069.

In effect.

SEC. 3. That this Act shall take effect immediately upon approval and passage of same.

Approved, May 9, 1910.

May 11, 1910.
[H. R. 9751.]

[Private, No. 68.]
Joshua E. Carlton.
Military record corrected.

CHAP. 228.—An Act For the relief of Joshua E. Carlton.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the pension laws, Joshua E. Carlton shall hereafter be held and considered to have served in Company C, Sixth Regiment Tennessee Mounted Infantry, under the name Jesse Carlton, from the second day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, to the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, when he was honorably discharged: Provided, That no pension shall accrue prior to the approval of this Act.

Proviso.
No prior pension.

Approved, May 11, 1910.

May 11, 1910.
[H. R. 20306.]

[Private, No. 69.]

Pensacola, Fla.
Title of heirs, etc.,
of Henry Hyer to land
in, confirmed.

CHAP. 229.—An Act To perfect the title to certain land to the heirs of Henry Hyer and his wife, Julia Hyer, deceased, and other persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the title of the heirs of Henry Hyer and Julia Hyer, his wife, deceased, late of Pensacola, Florida, and of such person or persons as by will or otherwise, from,