C. W. Reid and Sam Daube.
Refund of judgment on forfeited bail bond.

CHAP. 450.—An Act For the relief of C. W. Reid and Sam Daube.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to refund to C. W. Reid and Sam Daube the sum of six hundred and eighty-eight dollars and twenty-four cents, and said sum of six hundred and eighty-eight dollars and twenty-four cents is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, said sum having been paid by them as sureties on the forfeited bail bond of J. F. Newcomb in the case of the United States of America against J. F. Newcomb, heretofore pending in the United States court for the eastern district of Texas, at Paris, Texas, on final judgment rendered after said J. F. Newcomb, the principal in said bond, had been apprehended through the information and assistance of the said C. W. Reid and Sam Daube and after he had been convicted in said court upon the charge of incest, the offense for which he was under bond to appear in said case of the United States of America against J. F. Newcomb, the said sum of six hundred and eighty-eight dollars and twenty-four cents being the amount left after deducting from the total amount of said bail bond the expense incurred by the government in apprehending Newcomb, less the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars advanced by Reid and Daube to aid in the recapture.
