

eight thousand six hundred and sixty-eight of the second series and number twenty-one thousand and thirty-seven of the third series, five-twenties of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, Act of February twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, the coupons of which dated November first, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, were the last coupons paid, she shall refund and pay into the United States Treasury the money so paid to her, and that she shall make the United States whole and free from any loss or liability incurred by reason of said payment to her.

Approved, March 4, 1911.

March 4, 1911.
[H. R. 26121.]

CHAP. 316.—An Act For the relief of Edward F. Kearns.

[Private, No. 284.]
Edward F. Kearns.
Refund to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to refund, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred and eight dollars, which said sum was paid by the said Edward F. Kearns to the collector of customs at Boston, Massachusetts, for certain medicines held by him as unclaimed and which were found to be unsaleable under the pure food and drugs Act: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture shall be satisfied that the goods when sold by the collector of customs were in violation of the food and drugs Act of June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six: And provided further, That the said goods be disposed of as the Secretary of Agriculture shall direct.

Provisos.
Condition.
Vol. 34, p. 772.

Disposal of goods.

Approved, March 4, 1911.

March 4, 1911.
[H. R. 22270.]

CHAP. 317.—An Act For the relief of Amos M. Barbin.

[Private, No. 285.]
Amos M. Barbin.
Military record corrected.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the pension laws and the laws governing the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, or any branch thereof, Amos M. Barbin shall hereafter be held and considered to have been honorably discharged from the military service of the United States as a sergeant of Company A, Fifth Regiment West Virginia Volunteer Cavalry, on the twenty-fifth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-three: Provided, That no pension shall accrue prior to the passage of this Act.

Proviso.
No prior pension.

Approved, March 4, 1911.