

[No. 36.] Joint Resolution Limiting the editions of the publications of the Bureau of Mines.

June 25, 1910.
[S. J. Res. 107.]

[Pub. Res., No. 40.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the publications of the Bureau of Mines shall be published in such editions as recommended by the Secretary of the Interior, but not to exceed ten thousand copies for the first edition.

Bureau of Mines.
Editions of publications limited.
Ante, p. 742.

SEC. 2. That whenever the edition of any of the publications of the Bureau of Mines shall have become exhausted and the demand for it continues, there shall be published, on the requisition of the Secretary of the Interior, as many additional copies as the Secretary of the Interior may deem necessary to meet the demand.

Additional copies to meet demands.

Approved, June 25, 1910.

[No. 37.] Joint Resolution Authorizing the Secretary of War to loan certain tents to the Appalachian Exposition Company.

June 25, 1910.
[S. J. Res. 116.]

[Pub. Res., No. 41.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized, at his discretion and under such restrictions as are usual in such cases, to loan to the Appalachian Exposition Company, at Knoxville, Tennessee, two hundred wall tents, with flies, poles, and pins, for the use of said company at the exposition to be held in Knoxville, September twelfth to October twelfth, nineteen hundred and ten, and to deliver the said property to the Appalachian Exposition Company at such time prior to the date of said exposition as may be agreed upon between the Secretary of War and said company: Provided, That the Secretary of War shall, before delivering such property, take from the Appalachian Exposition Company a good and sufficient bond for the safe return of said property in good order and condition, the whole transaction to be without expense to the Government of the United States.

Appalachian Exposition Company.
Loan of tents, etc.,
for exposition at Knoxville, Tenn.

Proviso.
Indemnity bond.

Approved, June 25, 1910.

[No. 38.] Joint Resolution Extending the time for the filing of claims under the provisions of the Act of February twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and two.

June 25, 1910.
[S. J. Res. 117.]

[Pub. Res., No. 42.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the time for filing claims under the provisions of the Act of February twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and two, and amendments thereto, for horses, saddles, and bridles taken from confederate soldiers in violation of terms of surrender and for the payment thereof, is extended for two years from the passage of this joint resolution; and all claims not presented within this time shall be forever barred.

Property of confederate soldiers.
Time for filing
claims for, extended.
Vol. 32, p. 43; Vol.
35, p. 499.

Approved, June 25, 1910.

[No. 39.] Joint Resolution Making an appropriation to permit the President to protect lands and property in Imperial Valley, California.

June 25, 1910.
[S. J. Res. 120.]

[Pub. Res., No. 43.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of one million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by the President for the purpose of protecting the lands and property in the Imperial Valley and elsewhere along the Colorado River, within the limits of the United States, against injury or destruction by reason of the changes in the channels of the Colo-

Imperial Valley,
Cal.
Appropriation to protect, from overflow of Colorado
River.