them, of or concerning land forming a part of the right of way of the Union Pacific Railroad Company granted by the Government by the Act of Congress of July first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act to aid the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes"; and also all conveyances or agreements heretofore made by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, or the Union Pacific Railway Company, or the Denver Pacific Railway and Telegraph Company, or the successors or assigns of any of them, of or concerning land forming a part of the right of way between Denver, Colorado, and Cheyenne, Wyoming, of any of said companies granted by or held under any Act of Congress, and all conveyances or agreements confining the limits of said right of way, or restricting the same, are hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed to the extent that the same would have been legal or valid if the land involved therein had been held by the corporation making such conveyance or agreement under absolute or fee-simple title.

That in all instances in which title or ownership of any part of said right of way heretofore mentioned is claimed as against said corporation, or either of them, or the successors or assigns of any of them, by or through adverse possession of the character and duration prescribed by the laws of the State in which the land is situated, such adverse possession shall have the same effect as though the land embraced within the lines of said right of way had been granted by the United States absolutely or in fee instead of being granted as a right of way.

Sec. 2. That any part of the right of way heretofore mentioned which has been, under the law applicable to that subject, abandoned as a right of way is hereby granted to the owner of the land abutting thereon.

Sec. 3. That nothing hereinbefore contained shall have the effect to diminish said right of way to a less width than fifty feet on each side of the center of the main track of the railroad as now established and maintained: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to be a recognition of any right in the Union Pacific Railway Company as successor in interest to the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

Approved, June 24, 1912.

ROCK CREEK DRIVE AND LOVERS’ LANE.

For grading and improving Rock Creek Drive and Lovers’ Lane, between Massachusetts Avenue and R Street northwest, nine thousand five hundred dollars.

Under and in accordance with the provisions of subchapter one of chapter fifteen of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to institute in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia a proceeding in rem to condemn the land that may be necessary to extend Rock Creek Drive northwest, from Massachusetts Avenue southerly to Montrose Park, and to condemn any private interest in the land in Lovers’ Lane lying between land taxed as parcels thirty-nine-ten and thirty-nine-eleven, and Montrose Park from T Street southerly to R Street northwest, as shown on plans filed in the office of the engineer commissioner of the District of Columbia: Provided, however, That the entire amount found to be due and awarded by the jury in said proceedings as damages for and in respect of the land to be condemned, as provided for herein plus the costs and expenses of the proceedings hereunder shall be assessed by the jury as benefits.

There is hereby appropriated entirely out of the revenues of the District of Columbia a sum sufficient to pay the cost and expenses of the condemnation proceedings taken pursuant hereto, and for the payment of the amounts awarded as damages, the amounts assessed as benefits, when collected, to be repaid to the District of Columbia to the credit of the revenues of said District: Provided further, That the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, is hereby directed to transfer to the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for highway purposes so much of Montrose Park as they may deem necessary for the connecting highway herein authorized.

FORT DAVIS AND FORT DUPONT PARKS, AND SO FORTH.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed to prepare a highway plan to change the location and width of Alabama Avenue southeast, between Pennsylvania Avenue and Hillside Road, and to make such changes in the location of intersecting streets as may be necessary to provide proper connection with the new location of Alabama Avenue: Provided further, That under and in accordance with the provisions of subchapter one of chapter fifteen of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to institute in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia a proceeding in rem to condemn the land that may be necessary to preserve the sites of Fort Davis and Fort Dupont for park purposes, and to provide a connecting highway between these sites by widening Alabama Avenue to one hundred and fifty feet, comprising in all approximately forty-one and twenty-five one-hundredths acres of land, as shown on plans filed in the office of the Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia. There is hereby appropriated an amount sufficient to pay the necessary costs and expenses of said condemnation proceedings taken pursuant hereto, and for the payment of amounts awarded as damages: Provided, however, That the amount found to be due and awarded by the jury in said proceedings as damages for and in respect of the land to be taken in the condemnation proceedings herein authorized plus the costs and expenses of the proceedings, not less than one-third and all in excess of twenty-one thousand three hundred and thirty-four dollars shall be assessed by the jury as benefits, which when collected shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the revenues of the District of Columbia and the United States in equal parts.

Hereafter the United States shall not bear any part of the cost of the acquisition of land for street extensions, but when the condemnation of any land for such purposes is authorized by law the total cost of the land and the expenses of the condemnation proceedings shall be assessed as benefits; in any case where land is condemned for a parkway, including a street or streets, where such parkway is of considerable length with relation to its width, not less than one-half of the cost of the land including the same fraction of the expenses of the condemnation proceedings shall be assessed as benefits; and in any case where land is condemned for a public park, not less than one-third of the cost of the land including the same fraction of the expenses of the condemnation proceedings shall be assessed as benefits.
The public parks authorized and established by this Act shall become a part of the park system of the District of Columbia and be under the control of the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army.

SIXTY-SECOND CONGRESS.  Sess. II.  Ch. 182.  1912.

For continuing the extension of and maintaining the high-service system of water distribution, laying necessary service and trunk mains for low service, and purchasing, installing, and maintaining water meters on services to such private residences and to such business places as may not be required to install meters under existing regulations as may be directed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, said meters at all times to remain the property of the District of Columbia, to include all necessary land, machinery, buildings, mains, and appurtenances, and labor, and the purchase and maintenance of horses, wagons, carts, and harness necessary for the proper execution of this work, so much as may be available in the water fund during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen, after providing for the expenditures hereinafter authorized, is hereby appropriated.

SEC. 2. That the services of draftsmen, assistant engineers, levelers, transitmen, rodmen, chainmen, computers, copyists, overseers, and inspectors temporarily required in connection with sewer, street, or road work, or the construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations may be employed exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations when specifically and in writing ordered by the Commissioners of the District, and all such necessary expenditures for the proper execution of said work shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the Commissioners of the District in their annual estimates shall report the number of such employees performing such services, and their work, and the sums paid to each, and out of what appropriation: Provided, That the expenditures hereunder shall not exceed seventy thousand dollars during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics as may be required exclusively in connection with sewer, street, and road work, and street cleaning, or the construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriations under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred.

SEC. 3. That all horses, harness, and horse-drawn vehicles necessary for use in connection with the construction and supervision of sewer, street, street lighting, road work, and street-cleaning work, including the maintenance of said horses and harness, and the maintenance and repair of said vehicles, and the purchase of all necessary articles and supplies in connection therewith, or on construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations, may be purchased, hired, and maintained exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations, when specifically and in writing ordered by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia; and all such expenditures necessary for the proper execution of said work, exclusive of personal services, shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the Commissioners of the District in the annual estimates shall report the number of horses, vehicles, and harness purchased, and horses and vehicles hired, and the sums paid for same, and out of what appropriation; and all horses owned or maintained by the District shall, so far as may be practicable, be provided for in stables owned or operated by said District: Provided, That such horses, horse-drawn vehicles, and carts as may be temporarily needed for hauling and excavating material in connection with works authorized by appropriations may be temporarily employed for such purposes under the conditions named in section two of this Act in relation to the employment of laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics.

Sec. 4. The services of assistant engineers, draftsmen, levelers, rodmen, chainmen, and inspectors temporarily required in connection with water-department work authorized by appropriations may be employed exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations, and be paid therefrom, when specifically and in writing ordered by the Commissioners of the District, and the Commissioners of the District in their annual estimates shall report the number of such employees performing such services and their work and the sums paid to each: Provided, That the expenditures hereunder shall not exceed thirteen thousand dollars during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics as may be required in connection with water-department work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by existing law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriation under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred.

Sec. 5. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to employ in the execution of work the cost of which is payable from the appropriation account created in the District appropriation Act for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and five, approved April twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and four, and known as the "Miscellaneous trust-fund deposits, District of Columbia," all necessary inspectors, overseers, foremen, sewer tappers, skilled laborers, mechanics, laborers, special policemen stationed at street-railway crossings, one inspector of gas fitting, two janitors for laboratories of the Washington and Georgetown Gas Light Companies, market master, assistant market master, watchman, horses, carts, and wagons, and to incur all necessary expenses incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, such services and expenses to be paid from said appropriation account.

Sec. 6. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall not make requisitions upon the appropriations from the Treasury of the United States for a larger amount during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen than they make on the appropriations arising from the revenues, including drawback certificates, of said District.

Sec. 7. During the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen no more than the following rates shall be paid for lighting avenues, streets, roads, alleys, and public spaces.

For mantle gas lamps of sixty candlepower, eighteen dollars and forty cents per lamp per annum.
For mantle gas lamps of not less than one hundred and twenty candlepower, twenty-seven dollars per lamp per annum.
For street designation lamps, using flat-flame burners, consuming not more than two and one-half cubic feet of gas per hour, or eight-candlepower incandescent electric lamps, with posts and lanterns furnished by the District of Columbia, ten dollars per lamp per annum.
For forty candlepower, fifty watt, incandescent electric lamps on overhead wires, fifteen dollars per lamp per annum.
For forty candlepower, fifty watt, incandescent electric lamps on underground wires, nineteen dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For sixty candlepower, seventy-five watt, incandescent electric lamps on overhead wires, seventeen dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For sixty candlepower, seventy-five watt, incandescent electric lamps on underground wires, twenty-three dollars per lamp per annum.

For eighty candlepower, one hundred watt, incandescent electric lamps on underground wires, twenty-six dollars per lamp per annum.

For one hundred candlepower, one hundred and twenty-five watt, incandescent electric lamps on underground wires, twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For one hundred and fifty candlepower, one hundred and eighty-seven watt, incandescent electric lamps on underground wires, thirty-six dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For two hundred candlepower, two hundred and fifty watt, incandescent electric lamps on underground wires, forty-six dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For four-glower Nernst lamps on underground wires, fifty-two dollars per lamp per annum.

For six and six-tenths ampere, five hundred and twenty-eight watt, direct-current, series-inclosed arc lamps, eighty dollars per lamp per annum.

For five-ampere, five-hundred-and-fifty-watt, direct-current, multiple-inclosed arc lamps, eighty dollars per lamp per annum.

For four-ampere, three-hundred-and-twenty-watt magnetite, or other arc lamps of equal illuminating value acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, on overhead wires, fifty-nine dollars per lamp per annum.

For four-ampere, three-hundred-and-twenty-watt magnetite, or other arc lamps of equal illuminating value acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, on underground wires, seventy-two dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For six and six-tenths ampere, five-hundred-watt magnetite, or other arc lamps of equal illuminating value acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, on overhead wires, eighty-four dollars per lamp per annum.

For six and six-tenths ampere, five-hundred-watt magnetite, or other arc lamps of equal illuminating value acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, on underground wires, ninety-seven dollars and fifty cents per lamp per annum.

For flame arc lamps, five-hundred-watt, General Electric type, or other arc lamps of equal illuminating value acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, one hundred and fifty dollars per lamp per annum.

Provided, That except as otherwise directed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, all series-inclosed and multiple-inclosed arc lamps now in service shall be replaced by the lighting company, without expense to the District of Columbia, with four-ampere, three-hundred-and-twenty-watt magnetite, or other arc lamps of equal illuminating value acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, by April first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and such replacement shall be effected to the number of not less than four hundred lamps per annum until completed.

For the rates named above it shall thereafter be the duty of each gaslight company and each electric-light company doing business in the District of Columbia to erect and maintain such street lamps as the Commissioners of said District may direct; and each such company shall furnish, install, and maintain all posts, lamps, lanterns, burners, wires, cable, conduits, gas pipes, street designations, and fixtures necessary for the respective lamps maintained by each of them, including lighting and extinguishing lamps, and repairing, painting, and cleaning.

Hereafter the cost of each lamp-post for incandescent electric lighting furnished by any lighting company under the above rates shall not exceed fifteen dollars, except as hereinafter provided, which cost shall include only the lamp-post, the globe, the ornamental top, and the street-designation frame and signs. All other fixtures, parts, fittings, lamps, sockets, wires, and appurtenances necessary for the lamps maintained by said lighting company on said posts, including the cost of erection, shall not be included in said cost.

The cost of each lamp-post for gas lighting furnished by any lighting company under the above rates shall not exceed fifteen dollars, except as hereinafter provided, which cost shall include only the lamp-post and the street-designation frame and signs. All other fixtures, parts, fittings, burners, lamps, pipes, and appurtenances necessary for the lamps maintained by said lighting company on said posts, including the cost of erection, shall not be included in said cost.

The cost of each lamp-post for arc lighting furnished by any lighting company under the above rates shall not exceed fifty dollars, except as hereinafter provided, which cost shall include only the lamp-post, the street-designation frame and signs, and the arm or top from which the lamp is hung. All other fixtures, parts, fittings, lamps, cables, wires, and appurtenances necessary for the lamps maintained by said lighting company on said posts, including the cost of erection, shall not be included in said cost.

Each lamp-post and its equipment shall be of a design and quality acceptable to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

For each such lamp-post furnished by a lighting company by direction of the District Commissioners which shall cost in excess of fifteen dollars for gas or electric incandescent lamps, or which shall cost in excess of fifty dollars for electric arc lamps, the company furnishing the same shall receive, in addition to the above rates, eleven per centum per annum on such additional or excess cost.

Hereafter the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized, in their discretion, to purchase or construct from street-lighting appropriations made in this Act posts, lanterns, street designations, and all necessary fixtures or appurtenances for any of the systems of lighting above named: Provided, That whenever the said commissioners shall furnish a lamp-post, including only the globe, the ornamental top, and the street-designation frame and signs for the electric incandescent lamps, or including only the street-designation frame and signs for gas lamps, or including only the street-designation frame and signs and the arm or top for arc lamps, one dollar and sixty-five cents per lamp per annum for gas or electric incandescent lamps and four dollars and forty cents per lamp per annum for electric arc lamps shall be deducted from the rates above fixed.

Hereafter the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are further authorized, in their discretion, to adopt other forms of electric street lighting than those named, in which event payments under appropriations made in this Act shall be made for the lighting service rendered at not to exceed three cents per kilowatt-hour for current consumed; and, in addition thereto, eleven per centum per annum of the cost to the lighting company of furnishing and installing lamps, posts, street designations, fixtures, and the cable from lamps to the nearest point of current supply, and a fair sum for the cost of maintenance.
Moving lamps, etc.

When ordered to do so by the said commissioners, lighting companies shall move and readjust any lamps maintained by them at the following rates:

For each electric arc lamp, ten dollars.
For each electric incandescent lamp, five dollars.
For each gas lamp moved not more than six feet, two dollars and fifty cents.
For each gas lamp moved more than six feet, four dollars.
For each gas lamp raised or lowered to new grade, one dollar and fifty cents.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to enter into contract, for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen, with any responsible person, firm, company, or corporation for the maintenance of naphtha or oil lamps, equipped with mantle burners of not less than sixty candlepower, at a price not to exceed twenty-two dollars and eighty cents per lamp per annum, which price shall include the entire cost of furnishing, installing, and maintaining all necessary posts, lanterns, burners, street designations, and fixtures.

Hereafter when ordered by the commissioners to do so, lighting companies in the District of Columbia shall discontinue any public lamps maintained by them without further payment therefor, and shall remove from the streets, at their own expense, all posts, lanterns, and fixtures connected therewith.

SEC. 8. No money appropriated by this or any other Act shall be expended for membership fees or dues of any officer or employee of the United States or of the District of Columbia in any society or association or for expenses of attendance of any person at any meeting or convention of members of any society or association, unless such fees, dues, or expenses are authorized to be paid by specific appropriations for such purposes or are provided for in express terms in some general appropriation.

SEC. 9. The provisions of section thirty-six hundred and seventy-nine of the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended by section three of the urgent deficiency appropriation Act approved February twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and six (Statutes at Large, volume thirty-four, page forty-nine), known as the anti-deficiency Act, are hereby extended and made applicable in all respects to appropriations made for and expenditures of and to all of the officers and employees of the government of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 10. On and after July first, nineteen hundred and twelve, fees collected by the District of Columbia shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in equal parts, as follows, namely, fees of Superintendents of Weights, Measures, and Markets; fees of Surveyor's Office; Health Department fees; Pound fees; fees for railing permits; fees for building permits; fees for electrical permits; Bathing Beach fees; fees from public convenience stations; fees for tax certificates; fees of the Municipal Court; and fees collected by the building inspection division on account of permits, certificates, and transcripts of records issued by the inspector of buildings; and the surplus fees of the Recorder of Deeds and Register of Wills; together with the tuition of nonresident pupils in public schools, and the tax of one-half of one cent paid by any street or other railroad company for each passenger carried across the Highway Bridge; and the annual wheel tax on all automobiles or other motor vehicles.

SEC. 11. Hereafter the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds may transfer apparatus, appliances, equipments, and supplies of any kind, discontinued or permanently out of service, to such other branches of the service of the United States, or District of Columbia, whenever, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in his judgment the interests of the Government service may require it. A detailed statement of all such transfers shall be submitted in the annual report to Congress of the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds.

Approved, June 20, 1912.

CHAP. 183.—An Act To authorize the Saint Louis Southwestern Railway Company to repair, alter, or rebuild certain bridges in the State of Arkansas.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Saint Louis Southwestern Railway Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Missouri as the successor in interest of the Texas and Saint Louis Railway Company, a corporation organized under the laws of Missouri and Arkansas and heretofore duly authorized by Act of Congress approved June twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, to construct, maintain, and operate bridges across the White, Arkansas, Saline, Ouachita, and Red Rivers in the State of Arkansas, be, and it is hereby, authorized to alter, repair, or rebuild the bridges on its line of railroad across the White, Arkansas, Saline, Ouachita, and Red Rivers in the State of Arkansas. This authority is, in all respects, to be exercised subject to and in accordance with the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the construction of bridges on navigable waters," approved March twenty-third, nineteen hundred and six; and whenever the provisions of said Act approved June twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, differ from or are inconsistent with the provisions of said Act approved March twenty-third, nineteen hundred and six, and this Act, the same are hereby repealed: Provided, That this Act shall not be construed as legalizing the construction nor as authorizing the reconstruction of the bridge across Saline River as it now exists, but in rebuilding said bridge such changes shall be made therein as the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers may deem necessary and order in the interest of navigation.

Sec. 2. That the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act is hereby expressly reserved.

Approved, June 26, 1912.

CHAP. 184.—An Act To authorize the Norfolk and Western Railway Company to construct sundry bridges across the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Virginia, its successors and assigns, be, and they are hereby, authorized to construct, maintain, and operate bridges and approaches thereto across the Tug Fork of Big Sandy River at such points where the same forms the boundary line between the States of West Virginia and Kentucky, or the boundary line between the States of West Virginia and Virginia, as may be suitable to the interests of navigation and approved by the Secretary of War, in accordance with the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the construction of bridges over navigable waters," approved March twenty-third, nineteen hundred and six.

Sec. 2. That the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act is hereby expressly reserved.

Approved, June 26, 1912.
