BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Santa Rosa National Forest, Nev.
Preamble.

WHEREAS the public lands in the State of Nevada, which are hereinafter indicated, are in part covered with timber, and it appears that the public good will be promoted by utilizing said lands as a National Forest;

National forest, Nevada.
Vol. 26, p. 1103.

Now, therefore, I, William H. Taft, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by section twenty-four of the Act of Congress, approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An Act To repeal timber-culture laws, and for other purposes," do proclaim that there are hereby reserved from settlement or entry and set apart as a public reservation, for the use and benefit of the people, all the tracts of land, in the State of Nevada, shown as the Santa Rosa National Forest on the diagram forming a part hereof.

Prior rights not affected.

The withdrawal made by this proclamation shall, as to all lands which are at this date legally appropriated under the public land laws or reserved for any public purpose, be subject to, and shall not interfere with or defeat legal rights under such appropriation, nor prevent the use for such public purpose of lands so reserved, so long as such appropriation is legally maintained, or such reservation remains in force.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of [SEAL.] the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fifth.

WM H TAFT
