Provisos.
 Reassembling of
 court-martial authorized to try certain cadets.

For pay of cadets, $360,000: Provided, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to reassemble the court-martial, or as many members thereof as practicable, not less than the minimum prescribed by law, which on August sixteenth, nineteen hundred and eleven, tried Ralph I. Sasse, Ellicott H. Freeland, Tattnall D. Simkins, and James D. Christian, cadets of the Corps of Cadets of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, for having violated on August fourth, nineteen hundred and eleven, paragraph numbered one hundred and thirty-two of the former regulations of the said academy, and sentenced them to be dismissed from the service and to resubmit the case of any one or more of said cadets upon his or their applications to said court for reconsideration of the sentence; and upon such reconsideration the court is authorized to construe said paragraph as not necessarily requiring a sentence of dismissal, but as permitting a lesser punishment, as provided in paragraph numbered one hundred and forty-two of the current regulations approved June fifteenth, nineteen hundred and eleven, and to modify the sentence accordingly: And provided further, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to carry such modified sentence or sentences into effect, notwithstanding the prior dismissal of said cadets, by reinstating them in accordance with the terms and conditions of the modified sentence as approved by the President: Provided further, That any cadet, or cadets, reinstated under the provisions of this Act shall be additional to those otherwise authorized by law;
