AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

July 21, 1914.
[H. J. Res. 304.]
[Pub. Res., No. 40.]

[No. 29.] Joint Resolution Authorizing the Secretary of War to loan certain saddles and bridles for the use of the national encampment, Knights of Pythias, to be held at Terre Haute, Indiana, in July, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

Knights of Pythias. Loan of Army saddles and bridles to.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized to loan, at his discretion, to the mount committee of the national encampment, Knights of Pythias, to be held at Terre Haute, Indiana, in the month of July, nineteen hundred and fourteen, two hundred saddles and bridles: Provided, That no expense shall be caused the United States Government by the delivery and return of said property, the same to be delivered to said committee designated at such time prior to the holding of said encampment as may be agreed upon by the Secretary of War and Scott Hanna, chairman of the mount committee: And provided further, That the Secretary of War, before delivering said saddles and bridles, shall take from said Scott Hanna a good and sufficient bond for the safe return of said property in good order and condition, and the whole without expense to the United States.

Provisos.
No expense.

Bond required.

Approved, July 21, 1914.

August 3, 1914.
[H. J. Res. 312.]
[Pub. Res., No. 41.]

[No. 30.] Joint Resolution For the relief, protection, and transportation of American citizens in Europe and for other purposes.

War in Europe. Appropriation for relief, etc., of American citizens. Infra.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the relief, protection, and transportation of American citizens, for personal services, and for other expenses which may be incurred in connection with or growing out of the existing political disturbances in Europe, there is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $250,000, to be expended at the discretion of the President: Provided, That American citizens to whom relief is extended or transportation is furnished hereunder shall pay to or reimburse the United States all reasonable expenses so incurred, respectively, on their account, if financially able to do so.

Proviso.
Reimbursement.

Approved, August 3, 1914.

August 5, 1914.
[H. J. Res. 314.]
[Pub. Res., No. 42.]

[No. 31.] Joint Resolution For the relief, protection, and transportation of American citizens in Europe and for other purposes.

War in Europe. Appropriation for expenses, relief of American citizens, etc. Supra.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the relief, protection, and transportation of American citizens, and for personal services, rent, and other expenses which may be incurred in the District of Columbia or elsewhere in connection with or growing out of the existing political disturbance in Europe, there is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $2,500,000, to be expended at the discretion of the President: Provided, That American citizens to whom relief is extended or transportation is furnished hereunder shall pay to or reimburse the United States all reasonable expenses so incurred, respectively, on their account, if financially able to do so. In the execution of the provisions hereof the President is authorized to employ any officers, employees, and vessels of the United States and use any supplies of the Naval or Military Establishments and to charter and employ any vessels that may be required.

Proviso.
Reimbursement.

Expenditures authorized.

Detailed statement required of disbursements.

A detailed statement of all expenditures hereunder and under the appropriation of $250,000 made in the joint resolution approved August third, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and of all amounts