

STATUTE II.

CHAP. L.—An Act making appropriations for carrying into effect certain treaties with the Indian tribes, and for holding a treaty with the Pattawatimas.

March 2, 1829.

[Obsolete.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby, appropriated, viz:

For the annual support of a school for the education of Indian youth, under the treaty of the fifth August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, with the Chippewas, one thousand dollars.

Education under treaty, Aug. 1826.

For the payment of the annuity to the Pattawatimas, under the treaty of the sixteenth October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, two thousand dollars.

Annuity to Pattawatimas, under treaty, Oct. 1826.

For fulfilling the stipulations of the same treaty in regard to education, two thousand dollars.

Education under same.

For the annual support of a blacksmith and miller, and for furnishing one hundred and sixty bushels of salt, under the same treaty, one thousand five hundred and twenty dollars.

Blacksmith, miller, and salt.

For the payment of the permanent annuity under the fourth article of the treaty with the Miamies, of the twenty-third October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, twenty-five thousand dollars.

Permanent annuity, under treaty with Miamies, Oct. 1826.

For the delivery of iron, steel, and tobacco, under the same treaty, and for the employment of labourers, one thousand one hundred dollars.

Iron, steel, &c. under same.

For the annual support of the poor and infirm Miamies, and the education of their youth, under the sixth article of said treaty, two thousand dollars.

Poor and infirm Miamies, and education, under same.

For making good a deficiency in the appropriation to carry into effect the fourth article of the treaty of the second and third of June, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, with the Osage and Kansas Indians, sixteen thousand eight hundred and ninety-five dollars and forty cents.

Appropriation for treaty, June, 1825, with Osages and Kansas.

For the payment of the sum stipulated in the second article of the agreement entered into with the Winnebago Indians on the twenty-fifth of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, twenty thousand dollars.

Treaty, Aug. 1825, with Winnebagoes.

For the payment of the permanent annuity stipulated in the second article of the treaty with the Pattawatima Indians of the twentieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, two thousand dollars.

Permanent annuity to Pattawatimas, under treaty, September, 1828.

For the payment of the limited annuity stipulated in the same article, one thousand dollars.

Annuity, under same.

For the purchase of goods and the payment in specie stipulated in said article, including transportation, forty-five thousand five hundred dollars.

Goods, &c. under same.

For the expense of farming, and for utensils, specified in said article, seven thousand five hundred dollars.

Farming, &c. under same.

For tobacco, iron, steel, education, annuity to principal chief, employment of labourers, and purchase of land granted to Nancy Burnett, two thousand nine hundred and sixty dollars.

Tobacco, &c., education, annuity, &c.

For the payment of claims against the Pattawatimas, stipulated in the third article of said treaty, ten thousand eight hundred and ninety-five dollars.

Claims against Pattawatimas, under same.

For expenses of ascertaining the value of property belonging to the missionary establishment, the removal of which is provided for in the fifth article of the said treaty, three hundred dollars.

Appraising property of missionary establishment.

For compensation to Cherokee Indians emigrating from within the chartered limits of the state of Georgia, in pursuance of the provisions of the treaty of the sixth of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, with the Cherokees of Arkansas, upon the supposition that five hundred may emigrate within the year, that is to say: For rifles, including a balance due on rifles purchased last year, for blankets, for Compensation to Cherokees emigrating from Georgia, under treaty, May, 1828.

Transportation.	brass kettles, and for tobacco, ten thousand seven hundred and twenty-four dollars and seventy-five cents.
Property of emigrants.	For expense of transportation of those articles, two thousand dollars.
Expense of emigration.	For payment for property which may be abandoned by Cherokees emigrating from Georgia, five thousand dollars.
Provisions for emigrants.	For expense of emigration, being ten dollars per head, five thousand dollars.
Gratuity to emigrants.	For one year's provisions for emigrants, fifteen thousand dollars.
Appraisers of property abandoned.	For gratuity of ten dollars to each emigrant, as per eighth article of the treaty, five thousand dollars.
Improvements abandoned by Cherokees of Arkansas.	For compensation of appraisers of property abandoned by emigrants, as provided in eighth article of said treaty, and of such other persons as it may be necessary to employ in executing the provisions of said article, six thousand five hundred dollars.
Appraisers of property, and expenses of removal of aged, infirm Indians.	For compensation for improvements which may be abandoned by the Cherokees of Arkansas, as is provided in the fourth article of said treaty, estimating for one thousand heads of families, thirty-seven thousand dollars.
	For compensation of appraisers of property so abandoned, in pursuance of same article, and for expenses of removal of aged and infirm Indians, five thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several sums, hereby appropriated, shall be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

APPROVED, March 2, 1829.

STATUTE II.

March 3, 1829.

[Obsolete.]

CHAP. LI.—An Act making appropriations for the public buildings, and other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the following sums be appropriated and paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the following purposes, respectively, to wit:

Repairs, &c. of capitol.	For repairs and other work necessary to be done on and about the capitol and its enclosures, eighteen thousand seven hundred and sixty-two dollars and sixty-three cents.
Lamps, capitol square.	For erecting fourteen additional lamps in or around capitol square, two hundred and ten dollars.
Maintaining lamps.	For keeping lighted twenty-four lamps in or around said square, six hundred and five dollars.
Fence and gate.	For erecting an iron rail fence, and central gate, on that part of the public ground west of the capitol which adjoins the circular walk, twenty-eight hundred dollars.
Portico to President's house.	To complete the north front of the President's house, according to the original plan, by erecting a portico, twenty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine dollars and twenty-five cents.
Work on and about President's house.	For work to be done on and about the President's house and enclosures, six thousand three hundred and sixty-one dollars and eighty-six cents.
Furnishing President's house.	For furnishing the President's house under the direction of the President of the United States, fourteen thousand dollars.
Purchase of square 249.	For the purchase and enclosure of the square numbered two hundred and forty-nine, on the plan of the city, eight thousand dollars.
Engine companies.	For repairs and expenses of the fire apparatus of the Columbia and Franklin Engine Companies, six hundred and forty dollars.
Statues, front of capitol.	To enable the President of the United States to contract with Luigi Persico, to execute two statues in front of the capitol, four thousand dollars.
Sculpture in capitol.	For balance of compensation to N. Gevelot for sculpture in the capitol, seven hundred and fifty dollars.