

STATUTE I.

June 15, 1832.

[Obsolete.]

Certain unexpended balances re-appropriated.

CHAP. CXXX.—An Act for the re-appropriation of certain unexpended balances of former appropriations; and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the following sums, being unexpended balances of former appropriations, be, and the same are hereby, re-appropriated to the original objects of their appropriation, specifically, namely:

For the expense of visits of Indian deputations to the seat of government, three hundred and ninety-four dollars and forty-two cents.

For expenses incurred by the marshal of Michigan territory, in prosecuting Winnebago prisoners, one hundred and twenty-nine dollars and fifty-eight cents.

1824, ch. 151. For carrying into effect the treaty with the Florida Indians, according to the act of twenty-sixth May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and ninety-five dollars.

1826, ch. 148. For carrying into effect the Creek treaty, according to the appropriation to that effect in the act of twenty-second May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the re-appropriation of the balance thereof, by the act of March second, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, ten thousand seven hundred and forty-five dollars and ten cents.

1829, ch. 50. For compensation to Cherokee emigrants from Georgia, according to the act of second March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, ten thousand five hundred and fifty-one dollars and thirty cents.

1829, ch. 50. For carrying into effect the treaty with the Pattawatamies, by act of second March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, eight hundred and sixty-five dollars and ninety-two cents.

1829, ch. 50. For compensation for improvements abandoned by the Cherokees of Arkansas, by act of second March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, seventeen thousand five hundred and forty-one dollars and thirty-three cents.

1829, ch. 50. For provisions for the Quapaws, by act of second March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, one thousand dollars.

1828, ch. 47. For aiding certain Creeks in their removal, by act of ninth May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, six hundred and four dollars and three cents.

1829, ch. 50. For extinguishment of the title of the Delaware Indians to their reservation in Ohio, by act of second March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, one thousand four hundred and eighty-seven dollars and sixty-seven cents.

Ante, p. 506. SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one thousand dollars, heretofore appropriated for contingent expenses of the topographical bureau by the act making appropriations for the support of government for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, be, and the same is hereby, transferred and appropriated to the contingent expenses of the office of the chief engineer for the same year.

That the following sum be, and the same is hereby appropriated:

For defraying the expenses of the Wyandott delegation to the city of Washington, in January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, four hundred dollars; and for defraying the expenses of the Cherokee delegation, west of the Mississippi, now in the city of Washington, seven hundred and seventy-two dollars.

Illinois militia, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the militia of the state of Illinois called into the service of the United States by competent authority, and for paying the expenses incurred in defending the frontier from a recent invasion by several bands of hostile Indians, and including the pay of the militia legally called out for the same purpose from the neighbouring states and territories, three hundred thousand dollars, if so much be necessary, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be paid under the authority of the Secretary of War, agreeably to the second section of an act making appropriations for the support of the army for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the sum of twenty thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the President of the United States, for the relief of such friendly Indians as may seek protection within the Indian agencies on the north-western frontier.

APPROVED, June 15, 1832.

Relief of friendly Indians.

STATUTE I.

CHAP. CXXXI.—An Act to authorize the President to raise mounted volunteers for the defence of the frontier.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized to raise, either by the acceptance of volunteers, or enlistment for one year, unless sooner discharged, six hundred mounted rangers, to be armed, equipt, mounted, and organized in such manner, and to be under such regulations and restrictions as the nature of the service may, in his opinion, make necessary.

How armed, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That each of the said companies of rangers shall consist of one captain, one first, one second, and one third lieutenant; five sergeants, five corporals, and one hundred privates; the whole to form a battalion, and be commanded by a major.

Organization.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said non-commissioned officers and privates shall arm and equip themselves, unless otherwise ordered by the President, and provide their own horses, and shall be allowed each one dollar per day as a full compensation for their services and the use of their arms and horses. The commissioned officers shall receive the same pay and emoluments as officers of the same grade in the army of the United States, and the officers shall be allowed forage for their horses, and be entitled to the same rations as those of the same grade in the army of the United States, respectively.

Privates, &c. to arm and equip themselves.

Officers' pay and emoluments.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates raised pursuant to this act, shall be entitled to the like compensation, in case of disability by wounds or otherwise, incurred in the service, as has heretofore been allowed to officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates in the military establishment of the United States; and shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and such regulations as have been or shall be established according to law for the government of the army of the United States, as far as the same may be applicable to the said rangers within the intent and meaning of this act, for the protection and defence of the north-western frontier of the United States.

Provision in case of disability.

Corps subject to rules and articles of war.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, is hereby authorized to appoint all the officers proper to be appointed under this act; which appointments may be made during the recess of the Senate, but shall be submitted to the Senate at their next session, for their advice and consent; and that the sum of fifty thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the purpose of carrying this act into effect.

Officers, how to be appointed.
