That all material purchased under the provisions of this Act shall be of American manufacture, except in cases when, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, it is to the manifest interest of the United States to make purchases abroad, which material shall be admitted free of duty.
Limit on price for purchases.	SEC. 3. That except as expressly otherwise authorized herein no part of the sums appropriated by this Act shall be expended in the purchase from private manufacturers of any material at a price in excess of 25 per centum more than the cost of manufacturing such material by the Government, or, where such material is not or has not been manufactured by the Government, at a price in excess of 25 per centum more than the estimated cost of manufacture by the Government: Provided , That whenever in the opinion of the President the situation is such as to justify such action he may waive the limitations contained in this section.
Proviso. Waiver in emergen- cies.	SEC. 4. That expenditures for carrying out the provisions of this Act shall not be made in such manner as to prevent the operation of the Government arsenals at their most economical rate of production, except when a special exigency requires the operation of a portion of an arsenal's equipment at a different rate: Provided , That no part of the appropriations made in this Act shall be available for the salary or pay of any officer, manager, superintendent, foreman, or other person having charge of the work of any employee of the United States Government while making or causing to be made with a stop watch or other time-measuring device a time study of any job of any such employee between the starting and completion thereof, or of the movements of any such employee while engaged upon such work.
Arsenal operations not to be restricted.
Proviso. No pay to officer using time-measuring devices on work of em- ployees.

SEC. 5. That appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense, for the armament thereof, and for the procurement of heavy ordnance for trial and service, heretofore made in fortifications or sundry civil appropriation Acts shall not be available for obligation after June 30, 1920, and all unexpended balances of such appropriations which remain upon the books of the Treasury Department on June 30, 1921, shall be covered into the Treasury and carried to the surplus fund.

Prior appropriations not available after June 30, 1920.

Balances unexpended June 30, 1921, to be covered in.

SEC. 6. That estimates of appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense, for the armament thereof, and for the procurement of heavy ordnance for trial and service shall be submitted to Congress in the Book of Estimates for the fiscal year 1921 and each fiscal year thereafter upon an annual basis. And section 5 of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation Act approved June 20, 1874, and section 7 of the sundry civil appropriation Act approved August 24, 1912, so far as they except appropriations for "fortifications" from the operations thereof, are repealed.

Estimates hereafter to be on annual basis.

Former exception repealed.
Vol. 18, p. 110.
Vol. 37, p. 487.

SEC. 7. That the portion of the fortifications appropriation Act approved July 6, 1916, which reads:

Radiodynamic torpedo control.

"For procurement and installation of one radiodynamic torpedo unit, $417,000: Provided, That no part of said sum shall be so expended unless the United States shall first acquire as heretofore provided the rights of the said John Hays Hammond, junior, and the Radio Engineering Company of New York," is amended so as to read as follows:

Former provision.
Vol. 39, p. 347, amended.

"For demonstrating the control of torpedoes or underwater carriers of high explosives by radiodynamic or radiosonic energy, and for designing, developing, producing, and installing one radiodynamic or radiosonic torpedo unit, $417,000, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War: Provided, That all material acquired by the United States for said purpose, and all products manufactured or adapted therefrom, including said unit when completed, shall be and remain the property of the United States: Provided further, That no part of said sum shall be expended until the United States shall first receive from John Hays Hammond, junior, and from the Radio Engineering Company of New York, Incorporated, an unconditional license to use without cost said unit and all repairs and replacements thereof, in the event that the United States shall not acquire as heretofore provided the exclusive rights of said John Hays Hammond, junior, and of said Radio Engineering Company: Provided further, That the services of John Hays Hammond, junior, rendered in connection with said demonstration, shall be free of charge."

Appropriation for developing, etc., one unit.

Provisos.
All material, etc., to remain United States property.

Unconditional license to use unit, if exclusive rights not acquired.

Services free of charge.

SEC. 8. That no part of the moneys appropriated in each or any section of this Act shall be used or expended for the purchase or acquirement of any article or articles that at the time of the proposed acquirement can be manufactured or produced in each or any of the Government arsenals of the United States for a sum less than it can be purchased or procured otherwise.

Restriction on purchases at other than arsenals.

Approved, March 3, 1919.

CHAP. 100.—An Act To amend the Liberty Bond Acts and the War Finance Corporation Act, and for other purposes.
