The Secretary of War shall prescribe regulations and conditions for the selection and delivery of said supplies and foodstuffs to the American Red Cross for the purposes aforesaid.

Prosecution of claims by former Government employees: That it shall be unlawful for any person who, as a commissioned officer of the Army, or officer or employee of the United States, has at any time since April 6, 1917, been employed in any Bureau of the Government and in such employment been engaged on behalf of the United States in procuring or assisting to procure supplies for the Military Establishment, or who has been engaged in the settlement or adjustment of contracts or agreements for the procurement of supplies for the Military Establishment, within two years next after his discharge or other separation from the service of the Government, to solicit employment in the presentation or to aid or assist for compensation in the prosecution of claims against the United States arising out of any contracts or agreements for the procurement of supplies for said Bureau, which were pending or entered into while the said officer or employee was associated therewith. A violation of this provision of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both: Provided, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Approved, July 11, 1919.

CHAP. 9.—An Act Making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and they are hereby, appropriated to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the naval service of the Government for the year ending June 30, 1920, and for other purposes:

Emergency increase. is hereby authorized, whenever in his judgment a sufficient national emergency exists, to increase the authorized enlisted strength of the Navy to 191,000 men, and the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to call to or continue on active service on strictly naval duties, with their consent, such numbers of the male members and nurses of the Naval Reserve Force in enlisted ratings as may be necessary to supply deficiencies to maintain the total authorized strength for the periods herein authorized. The foregoing total authorized strength shall include the hospital corps, apprentice seamen, those sentenced by court-martial to discharge, enlisted men of the Flying Corps, those under instruction in trade schools, and members of the Naval Reserve Force so serving. That during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, no member of the Naval Reserve Force shall be recalled to active duty for training or any other purpose except as hereinbefore provided: Provided, That the average number of commissioned officers of the line, permanent, temporary, and reserves on active duty, shall not exceed during the periods aforesaid, 4 per centum of the total temporary authorized enlisted strength of the Regular and Temporary Navy, and members of the Naval Reserve Force in enlisted ratings on active duty, and the number of staff officers shall be in the same proportion as provided under existing law: Provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed as affecting the permanent, commissioned, or enlisted strength of the Regular Navy as authorized by existing law.

Naval Reserve Force. Female members, except nurses, of the Naval Reserve Force and the Marine Corps Reserve shall, as soon as practicable and in no event later than thirty days after the date of approval of this Act, be placed on inactive duty. Members of the Naval Reserve Force shall not hereafter be ordered to perform active duty on shore of a kind which is ordinarily performed by civilians, and all reservists now performing such duty shall be relieved from such duty within thirty days after the date of approval of this Act.

Male members and nurses in active naval service, authorized. Members of the Naval Reserve Force and Marine Corps Reserve whose conduct, services and efficiency have demonstrated the desirability of their retention may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, be given temporary civil appointments in the Navy Department or Naval Establishment at the ordinary and usual rates of pay accorded employees performing a similar character of work, provided such services are necessary.

Active duty of reservists restricted. Members of the Naval Reserve Force and Marine Corps Reserve who accept such temporary civil appointments shall be given an opportunity to qualify by a civil service examination for certification in accordance with civil service rules to fill such vacancies as may occur, in cases where they are not already eligible for appointment or reinstatement. All temporary appointments made hereunder shall terminate not later than June 30, 1920. For pay of reservists so transferred to the civil establishment, or civil service employees appointed in lieu thereof, $8,613,220, their pay prior to transfer to be charged to the appropriation "Pay of the Navy," and the Secretary of the Navy shall submit to Congress on the first day of the next regular session a statement showing the number and designation of the persons employed hereunder and the rate of compensation paid to each: Provided, That no employee paid under the provisions of this paragraph, except expert technicians, shall receive annual compensation in excess of $2,000 for services rendered in the Navy Department, Washington, District of Columbia: Provided further, That not more than twenty-four employees shall be so appointed at a compensation exceeding $2,000 per annum, and that in no case shall the compensation exceed $4,000 per annum.

Provisos. Average commissioned personnel limited. Permanent strength not affected. Naval Reserve Force, and Marine Corps Reserve. Female members to be placed on inactive duty. No civilian shore duty hereafter by Naval Reserve Force. Temporary civil appointments of efficient members authorized. May take civil service examination to fill occurring vacancies. Term. Appropriation for reservists transferred, etc. Provisos. Pay restriction for Department service. Limit on compensation exceeding $2,000.

The provision of existing law which requires the Secretary of the Navy to make computations semiannually as of July 1 and January 1 of each year and to convene the boards to select officers of the line and of the staff corps for promotion is hereby amended so that said computations shall be made and said boards shall be convened at least once each year and at such times as the Secretary of the Navy may direct, and the boards shall recommend for promotion such number of officers as may be necessary to fill vacancies then existing and which may occur during the next period of time.

That nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to reduce the pay or allowances of any commissioned, warrant, or appointed officer or any enlisted man as authorized by law for such officer or enlisted man in his present permanent status in the Regular Navy.

Enrolled men of the Naval Reserve Force and of the Marine Corps Reserve, other than commissioned and warrant officers, who have performed active duty during the war, may, upon their own application, be transferred to the regular Navy and Marine Corps, respectively, to serve the unexpired term of their enrollment in such rating or rank as they may be found qualified under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe: Provided, That men so transferred shall have at least one year to serve in the regular Navy or the Marine Corps before the expiration of their current enlistment: Provided further, That such transfers may not be made in excess of the authorized enlisted strength of the Navy or Marine Corps: Provided further, That enrolled men so transferred shall be entitled to and receive the same pay, rights, privileges, and allowances in all respects as now provided by existing law for men regularly discharged and reenlisted immediately upon expiration of their full four-year enlistment in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps.

All enlisted men of the Navy and Coast Guard who have served in the war with the German Government and who may hereafter be discharged or who have been discharged from the service since November 11, 1918, and before the expiration of their full enlistment shall receive, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, an honorable discharge and shall receive 5 cents per mile from the place of his discharge to his actual bona fide home or residence, or original muster into the service at his option: Provided, That for sea travel on discharge, transportation and subsistence only shall be furnished to enlisted men: Provided, That the records of such men warrant such honorable discharge.

Any enlisted man of the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, who, since February 3, 1917, and before November 11, 1918, enlisted for the period of four years shall upon his application made to the Secretary of the Navy on or before September 1, 1919, be held and construed to have enlisted for the duration of the war and shall when discharged be granted an honorable discharge, and upon the taking effect of this Act shall be notified by the Secretary of the Navy of his right to file such application: Provided, That said enlisted man is otherwise entitled to an honorable discharge: Provided further, That the return home of the American Expeditionary Forces shall not be thereby delayed: Provided further, That any enlisted man who takes advantage of the provisions of this paragraph to secure a discharge from the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, and thereafter reenlists within four months in the Navy or in the Marine Corps, under conditions as now prescribed by law, for a period of four years, shall be entitled to receive the benefits of the gratuity pay provided by existing law for reenlistments.

status changed to that of men who enlisted for the period of the war if otherwise entitled to an honorable discharge, may, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, extend their enlistments for a period of one, two, three, or four full years, and shall be entitled to and receive the same rights, privileges, pay, and allowances in all respects as now provided by law for men who extend enlistment on completion of terms of enlistment, except as to gratuity pay: Provided, That as, to gratuity pay, such enlisted men who extend their enlistment as before provided shall be entitled to receive an allowance of one month's pay for extending their enlistment for one year, two months' pay for extending their enlistment for two years, three months' pay for extending their enlistment for three years, and in the Navy four months' pay for extending their enlistment for four years.

The Act of April 16, 1918 (Public, Numbered 129), granting under certain conditions, to every commissioned officer of the Army the right to quarters in kind for their dependents or the authorized commutation therefor, including the allowances for heat and light, shall hereafter be construed to apply to officers of the Navy and Marine Corps only during the period of the war and in no event beyond October 1, 1919.

The rates of pay prescribed in section 15 of an Act entitled "An Act to temporarily increase the commissioned and warrant and enlisted strength of the Navy and Marine Corps, and for other purposes," approved May 22, 1917, are hereby made the permanent rates of pay of the enlisted men of the Navy during their present current enlistment and for those who enlist or reenlist prior to July 1, 1920, for the term of such enlistment or reenlistment.

That officers of the permanent Navy who have served satisfactorily during the war with the German Government in a temporary grade or rank shall be eligible under the provision of existing law for selection for promotion and for promotion to the same permanent grade or rank until July 1, 1920, without regard to statutory requirements other than professional and physical examinations: Provided, That the age and grade requirement prescribed by the Act approved August 29, 1916, in the rank of commander, is hereby extended from June 30, 1920, to June 30, 1921.

Any officer with the permanent rank of rear admiral who has heretofore served a full term and is now serving as chief of any bureau of the Navy Department shall be credited with service for all purposes as provided by section 1486 of the Revised Statutes, and nothing herein contained shall operate to increase the rank or pay of any such officer as now authorized by law.

Section 1 of the Act entitled "An Act to increase the number of midshipmen at the United States Naval Academy," approved December 20, 1917, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: That hereafter there shall be allowed at the United States Naval Academy five midshipmen for each Senator, Representative, Delegate in Congress, and Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico, and five for the District of Columbia, fifteen appointed each year at large, and one hundred appointed annually from enlisted men of the Navy, and members of the Naval Reserve Force on active duty, as now authorized by law.

Warrant officers of the Navy on shore duty beyond the continental limits of the United States shall, while so serving and from the time of departure from and until the time of return to said limits under orders to or from such foreign-shore duty, receive the same pay as is now or may be authorized by law for warrant officers on sea duty: Provided, That this paragraph shall be effective from April 6, 1917.

Any enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps who has been or may be discharged to enable him to accept appointment as a commissioned or warrant officer in the Naval Reserve Force or Marine Corps Reserve, and who reenlists in the Navy or Marine Corps after the termination of his reserve service, shall be entitled, in computing service for retirement, to credit for all active reserve service; and if he reenlists in the Navy or Marine Corps within four or three months, respectively, from the date of the termination of his service as an officer of the Reserve he shall be restored to the grade or rank held by him before being discharged to accept such commission or warrant, and his service in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, including his active service in the Naval Reserve Force or Marine Corps Reserve, shall be regarded as continuous for purposes of continuous-service pay: Provided, That any warrant officer in the Navy or Marine Corps and any pay clerk in the Marine Corps who has accepted or who may hereafter accept appointment as a commissioned officer in the Naval Reserve Force or Marine Corps Reserve shall be entitled, upon the termination of his appointment as a commissioned officer in the Reserve, to revert to his former status as a warrant officer in the Navy or Marine Corps, or as a pay clerk in the Marine Corps, and shall be entitled to count all active reserve service for purposes of longevity pay and retirement: Provided, That no part or parts of any existing laws shall be construed as having discharged from the Naval Militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, those members of the National Naval Volunteers who were transferred to the Naval Reserve Force by authority of the Act of Congress making appropriations for the Naval Service which became a law on July 1, 1918; nor to prevent members of the Naval Reserve Force from being or becoming members of the Naval Militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia: Provided, That such membership in the Naval Militia shall not interfere with the discharge of duties by such members thereof who are in the Naval Reserve Force.

That hereafter Assistant Paymaster John Flynn, United States Navy, shall be regarded as having been appointed as an assistant paymaster in the United States Navy on the 20th day of June, 1917, with rank as such immediately after Assistant Paymaster Henry Guilmette, United States Navy: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to entitle Assistant Paymaster John Flynn, United States Navy, to any back pay, allowances, or other emoluments on this permanent rank.

George E. Maynard, Arthur B. McCrary, Axel Lindblad, Seldon L. Almon, and William E. O'Connor shall be regarded as having been appointed ensigns in the United States Navy on the 28th day of June, 1917: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to entitle the said officers to any back pay, allowances, or other emoluments.

That the President is hereby authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, as a first lieutenant in the permanent establishment of the United States Marine Corps, First Sergeant Edgar Hayes, United States Marine Corps, to be an extra number in that grade and in any grade to which he may hereafter be promoted: Provided, That the said Edgar Hayes shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy, his mental, moral, physical, and professional qualifications to perform all the duties of said grade: Provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed to entitle the said Edgar Hayes to any back pay, allowances, or other emoluments by reason of the passage of this Act.
