

CHAP. 262.—An Act For the relief of Doctor Stanley R. Teachout.

February 18, 1929.

[H. R. 4776.]

[Private, No. 386.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Doctor Stanley R. Teachout, of Nashville, Tennessee, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $22,602.14 in full compensation for losses sustained and expenses incurred by him on account of certain repairs and alterations which he made in his buildings at Nashville, Tennessee, at the instance of and with the approval of representatives of the United States Veterans' Bureau and for the purpose of renting said premises to the said United States Veterans' Bureau and making same suitable for the occupancy by its regional office; and for losses and damages sustained by him on account of the said premises being vacated and the lease canceled by the bureau after an occupancy of nine months.

Doctor Stanley R. Teachout.
Compensation for building, etc., losses.

Approved, February 18, 1929.

CHAP. 263.—An Act For the relief of Charles H. Salley.

February 18, 1929.

[H. R. 9716.]

[Private, No. 387.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, to Charles H. Salley, of Salley, South Carolina, the sum of $67 in full compensation for costs and disbursements as administrator of the estate of Jim Woodward, deceased.

Charles H. Salley.
Payment to.

Approved, February 18, 1929.

CHAP. 264.—An Act For the relief of H. A. Russell.

February 18, 1929.

[H. R. 11749.]

[Private, No. 388.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and in full settlement of his claim against the Government, $400 to H. A. Russell, money taken and forfeited to the United States as bond money deposited by said H. A. Russell for one R. L. Barber for his appearance at the Federal court in Rock Hill, South Carolina, though said Barber did comply with all the terms of said bond.

H. A. Russell.
Reimbursement to, for forfeited bail bond.

Approved, February 18, 1929.

CHAP. 269.—An Act For the relief of Charles J. Hunt.

February 19, 1929.

[H. R. 10327.]

[Private, No. 389.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States is authorized and directed to allow the claim of Charles J. Hunt for compensation in the sum of $1,228.33 for services as financial clerk in the office of the superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Oklahoma, from April 25, 1926, to September 8, 1926, inclusive, which services were at the rate of $3,300 per annum.

Charles J. Hunt.
Compensation for services.

Approved, February 19, 1929.