AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

Benton County, Tennessee, a former employee of the War Department, to consider that his injury was sustained while in the performance of his duties in the service of the United States, and that his disability be considered as total and permanent, compensation to commence from and after the date of the passage of this Act.

Approved, February 26, 1929.

CHAP. 347.—An Act For the relief of Doctor Andrew J. Baker.

February 26, 1929.
[H. R. 11385.]
[Private, No. 410.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States Compensation Commission be, and it is hereby, directed to hear and determine the claim of Doctor Andrew J. Baker, who claims to have been disabled in the line of his employment as physician at the Pacific Branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at Sawtelle, California, the benefit of the Act of September 7, 1916 (Thirty-ninth Statutes at Large, page 742), as amended, without regard to the time of the filing of his claim for such benefits.

Doctor Andrew J. Baker.
Disability claim of, to be determined.

Vol. 39, p. 742; Vol. 44, p. 772.

Approved, February 26, 1929.

CHAP. 348.—An Act For the relief of Joe D. Donisi.

February 26, 1929.
[H. R. 924.]
[Private, No. 411.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Joe D. Donisi, the sum of $100 a month for fifty months, from and after the date of the approval of this Act, as compensation for disability resulting from injuries sustained by him on August 27, 1922, while a student, citizens' military training camp, Camp Knox, Kentucky. Such monthly payments shall be made through the Employees' Compensation Commission.

Joe D. Donisi.
Benefits of Employees' Compensation Act extended to.

Vol. 44, p. 772.

Approved, February 26, 1929.

CHAP. 349.—An Act For the relief of F. R. Barthold.

February 26, 1929.
[H. R. 9659.]
[Private, No. 412.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and in full settlement against the Government, the sum of $3,016.91 to F. R. Barthold, as compensation for the total destruction of a building and other property during a fire accidentally set by a Government employee while in the discharge of his official duties.

F. R. Barthold.
Payment to, for fire losses.

Approved, February 26, 1929.

CHAP. 350.—Joint Resolution For the relief of special disbursing agents of the Alaska Railroad.

February 26, 1929.
[H. J. Res. 135.]
[Priv. Res., No. 9.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the General Accounting Office is hereby authorized and directed to credit the accounts of R. D. Chase, formerly a special disbursing agent of the Alaska

Alaska Railroad.
Credits allowed in accounts of designated disbursing agents of.
R. D. Chase.