

March 2, 1929.

[H. R. 16090.]

[Private, No. 538.]

Hugh Dortch.
Payment to, for personal injuries.

CHAP. 665.—An Act For the relief of Hugh Dortch.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Hugh Dortch of Goldsborough, North Carolina, the sum of $500. Such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States on account of injuries to the said Hugh Dortch and to an automobile driven by him, resulting from a collision, occurring in the City of New York, between such automobile and a truck owned by the United States.

Approved, March 2, 1929.

March 2, 1929.

[H. R. 16122.]

[Private, No. 539.]

E. Schaaf-Regelman.
Reimbursement to, for road construction.

CHAP. 666.—An Act For the relief of E. Schaaf-Regelman.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to E. Schaaf-Regelman the sum of $500 to reimburse him for expenditures made by him in the construction of a road on the San Carlos Indian Reservation in the State of Arizona.

Approved, March 2, 1929.

March 2, 1929.

[H. R. 16335.]

[Private, No. 540.]

Twin City Forge and Foundry Company.
Execution of release of mortgage given by, authorized.

Form of, in accordance with State laws.

CHAP. 667.—An Act Authorizing the Secretary of War to execute a satisfaction of a certain mortgage given by the Twin City Forge and Foundry Company to the United States of America.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to execute and deliver to the Twin City Forge and Foundry Company, of Stillwater, Minnesota, a release or satisfaction of a certain mortgage dated August 13, 1918, executed by the Twin City Forge and Foundry Company to Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War of the United States of America, as trustee on behalf of the United States of America, said mortgage being in the amount of $750,000 and covering certain real estate and personal property of the said Twin City Forge and Foundry Company situated in the county of Washington and State of Minnesota; and said mortgage being recorded on August 19, 1918, on pages 112, 113, and 114 in book of mortgages numbered thirty-seven in the office of the register of deeds of Washington County, Minnesota. The indebtedness for which said mortgage was given is now fully paid and satisfied. The Secretary of War is further authorized and directed to execute such release or satisfaction in such form as is conformable with the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Approved, March 2, 1929.

March 2, 1929.

[H. R. 2425.]

[Private, No. 541.]

Annie McColgan.
Payment to, for death of husband.

CHAP. 668.—An Act For the relief of Annie McColgan.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Annie McColgan, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, widow of Peter