

CHAP. 727.—An Act Extending benefits of the World War Adjusted Compensation Act, as amended, to John J. Helms.

March 4, 1929.

[S. 5386.]

[Private, No. 566.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in administration of the World War Adjusted Compensation Act, as amended, John J. Helms, formerly private, Supply Company, One hundred and twenty-third Regiment United States Infantry, World War, shall be held to be entitled to the benefits thereof in the same manner and with the same effect as if a separation from the military forces of the United States on October 24, 1918, had been honorable.

John J. Helms.
Benefits of World War Adjusted Compensation Act extended to.

Approved, March 4, 1929.

CHAP. 728.—An Act For the relief of William S. Shacklette.

March 4, 1929.

[H. R. 12666.]

[Private, No. 567.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter William S. Shacklette, who was retired for physical disabilities, incurred in line of duty at the time of the explosion of the boilers of the United States ship Bennington, at San Diego, California, July 21, 1905, and was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for "extraordinary heroism displayed at the time of the accident," shall receive the retired pay of chief pharmacist, equivalent to the maximum pay and allowance of that grade provided by law.

William S. Shacklette, Navy.
Retired pay increased.

Approved, March 4, 1929.

CHAP. 729.—An Act For the relief of J. H. B. Wilder.

March 4, 1929.

[S. 5715.]

[Private, No. 568.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay to J. H. B. Wilder, of Macon, Georgia, or his legal representatives, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sum as in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, and not in excess of $7,106.96, would represent the increased cost to said J. H. B. Wilder, based upon changed conditions due to the World War, of completing his contract for the construction of the Federal building at Forsyth, Georgia.

J. H. B. Wilder.
Payment to, for increased cost of building
construction due to war conditions.

Approved, March 4, 1929.