AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

CHAP. 269.—An Act For the relief of Julius Victor Keller.

May 13, 1930.
[H. R. 1301.]
[Private, No. 28.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of any laws conferring rights, privileges, and benefits upon honorably discharged soldiers Julius Victor Keller, who was a member of Company C, Seventh Regiment United States Infantry, and formerly assigned to Company G, Third Regiment United States Infantry, United States Army, shall hereafter be held and considered to have been honorably discharged from the military service of the United States as a private and member of Company C, Seventh Regiment United States Infantry, on the 12th day of October, 1878, he having enlisted as Julius Keller: Provided, That no bounty, back pay, pension, or allowance shall be held to have accrued prior to the passage of this Act.

Julius Victor Keller. Military record corrected.

Proviso. No prior pension, etc.

Approved, May 13, 1930.

CHAP. 282.—An Act For the relief of Lyma Van Winkle.

May 14, 1930.
[H. R. 645.]
[Private, No. 29.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the fund of the Alaska Railroad, the sum of $1,000 to Lyma Van Winkle in full and final settlement for injuries sustained on November 23, 1925, while traveling on the Alaska Railroad from Fairbanks to Seward, Alaska.

Lyma Van Winkle. Payment to, for personal injuries.

Approved, May 14, 1930.

CHAP. 283.—An Act For the relief of Drinkard B. Milner.

May 14, 1930.
[S. 2076.]
[Private, No. 30.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the Emergency Officers' Retirement Act Captain Drinkard B. Milner shall be considered as coming within the provisions of said Act and entitled to the benefits thereof.

Drinkard B. Milner. Benefits of Emergency Officers' Retirement Act extended to.
Vol. 45, p. 735.

Approved, May 14, 1930.

CHAP. 284.—An Act For the relief of Albert L. Loban.

May 14, 1930.
[H. R. 1793.]
[Private, No. 31.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States Employees' Compensation Commission is authorized and directed to extend to Albert L. Loban, formerly employed as a mail carrier at Blue Rapids, Kansas, the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes," approved September 7, 1916, and afterwards amended by an Act of February 12, 1927, compensation hereunder to be based on an employee totally and permanently disabled and to commence from and after the passage of this Act.

Albert L. Loban. Benefits of Employees' Compensation Acts extended to.
Vol. 39, pp. 743, 745.
Vol. 44, pp. 772, 1086.

Approved, May 14, 1930.