CHAP. 205.—An Act To amend section 43 of the Act of May 25, 1926, entitled "An Act to adjust water-right charges, to grant certain other relief on the Federal irrigation projects, and for other purposes."

Irrigation projects.
Vol., 44 p. 647, amended.
Post, p. 367.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 43 of the Act of May 25, 1926, entitled "An Act to adjust water-right charges, to grant certain other relief on the Federal irrigation projects, and for other purposes" (Forty-fourth Statutes, page 636), be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Suspension of charges on temporarily unproductive areas.

"SEC. 43. The payment of all construction charges against said areas temporarily unproductive shall remain suspended until the Secretary of the Interior shall declare them to be possessed of sufficient productive power properly to be placed in a paying class, whereupon payment of construction charges against such areas shall be resumed or shall begin, as the case may be. Any payments made on such areas shall be credited to the unpaid balance of the construction charge on the productive area of each unit. Such credit shall be applied on and after the passage and approval of this Act, which shall not be construed to require revision of accounts heretofore adjusted under the provisions of this section as originally enacted. While said lands so classified as temporarily unproductive and the construction charges against them are suspended, water for irrigation purposes may be furnished upon payment of the usual operation and maintenance charges, or such other charges as may be Payments made to be credited to productive area of unit.

Water for irrigation may be furnished.
