[CHAPTER 58.]

AN ACT

To amend existing law in order to obviate the payment of one year's sea pay to surplus graduates of the Naval Academy.

June 10, 1933.
[H.R. 5012.]
[Public, No. 38.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That so much of the Act of August 5, 1882 (22 Stat. 285, ch. 391), as is contained in the proviso at the end of section 1057, title 34, United States Code, is hereby amended by repealing the words "and one year's sea pay", so that the said proviso will read as follows: "Provided, That if there be a surplus of graduates, those who do not receive such appointments shall be given a certificate of graduation and an honorable discharge."

Naval Academy.
Surplus graduates not to receive one year's sea pay.
Vol. 22, p. 285; U.S.C., p. 1148.
Post, p. 307.

Approved, June 10, 1933.

[CHAPTER 59.]

AN ACT

To promote the foreign trade of the United States in apples and/or pears, to protect the reputation of American-grown apples and pears in foreign markets, to prevent deception or misrepresentation as to the quality of such products moving in foreign commerce, to provide for the commercial inspection of such products entering such commerce, and for other purposes.

June 10, 1933.
[H.R. 4812.]
[Public, No. 39.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be unlawful for any person to ship or offer for shipment or for any carrier, or any steamship company, or any person to transport or receive for transportation to any foreign destination, except as provided in this Act, any apples and/or pears in packages which are not accompanied by a certificate issued under authority of the Secretary of Agriculture showing that such apples or pears are of a Federal or State grade which meets the minimum of quality established by the Secretary for shipment in export. The Secretary is authorized to prescribe, by regulations, the requirements, other than those of grade, which the fruit must meet before certificates are issued. The Secretary shall provide opportunity, by public hearing or otherwise, for interested persons to examine and make recommendation with respect to any standard of export proposed to be established or designated, or regulation prescribed, by the Secretary for the purposes of this Act.

Apples and pears, American grown.
Shipment for export, without certificate, unlawful.

Regulations to be prescribed by Secretary of Agriculture.

Hearings to determine standard of export.

SEC. 2. The Secretary shall give reasonable notice through one or more trade papers of the effective date of standards of export established or designated by him under this Act: Provided, That any apples or pears may be certified and shipped for export in fulfillment of any contract made within six months prior to the date of such shipment if the terms of such contract were in accordance with the grades and regulations of the Secretary in effect at the time the contract was made.

Notice of standard.

Proviso.
Prior contracts, fulfilling authorized.
