AN ACT

For the relief of Carleton-Mace Engineering Corporation.

June 18, 1934.
[H.R. 4659.]
[Private, No. 286.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to adjust and settle the claim of Carleton-Mace Engineering Corporation, of Boston, Massachusetts, on account of the extra cost of installing fire-protection system at the naval ammunition depot, Hingham, Massachusetts, under contract numbered 3808–B, which extra cost was occasioned by an embargo placed on freight by the United States Railroad Administration, thereby preventing the completion of the work under the above contract before cold weather set in, and to allow in full and final settlement of said claim such amount, not exceeding $32,726.14, as the Comptroller General may find from the facts and the evidence submitted to him to be the actual amount of the extra cost occasioned by the said embargo. There is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $32,726.14, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay the amount herein authorized to be allowed.

Carleton-Mace Engineering Corporation.
Claim for extra cost on contract to be settled.

Appropriation.

Approved, June 18, 1934.

AN ACT

For the relief of Lyman D. Drake, Junior.

June 18, 1934.
[H.R. 4670.]
[Private, No. 287.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Lyman D. Drake, Junior, of Miami, Florida, the sum of $2,500, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for personal injuries received while in the employ of and working upon the Panama Railroad and in connection with that service and in the employ of the Panama Canal Commission as brakeman upon the Panama Railroad: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, on account of services rendered in connection with said claim. It shall be unlawful for any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, to exact, collect, withhold, or receive any sum of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof on account of services rendered in connection with said claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Lyman D. Drake, Junior.
Payment to, for personal injuries.

Proviso.
Limitation on attorney's, etc., fees.

Penalty for violation.

Approved, June 18, 1934.
