[CHAPTER 820.]

AN ACT

June 26, 1934.
[S. 2806.]
[Private, No. 396.]

To confer jurisdiction on the Court of Claims to hear and determine the claim of Carlo de Luca.

Carlo de Luca.
Claim of, referred to Court of Claims.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Court of Claims of the United States be, and it is hereby, given jurisdiction to hear and determine the claim of Carlo de Luca, and to award him just compensation for losses and damages, if any, which he may have suffered through action of the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation in commandeering or requisitioning two certain contracts dated June 25, 1917, which the said Carlo de Luca owned and which he had with the Standard Shipbuilding Corporation of New York for the construction and delivery of two certain ships designated as "hulls 12 and 13"; and to enter decree or judgment against the United States for such just compensation, if any, notwithstanding the bars or defenses of any alleged settlement or adjustment heretofore made or of res judica, lapse of time, laches, or any statute of limitation: Provided, however, That the United States shall be given credit for any sum heretofore paid the said Carlo de Luca by reason of said action of the United States Shipping Board and/or the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation.

Proviso.
Credit for sum paid.

Commencement of suit.

SEC. 2. Such claim may, under section 1 of this Act, be instituted at any time within four months from the approval of this Act. Proceedings in any suit brought in the Court of Claims under this Act, appeals therefrom, and payment of any judgment therein shall be had as in the case of claims over which such court has jurisdiction under section 145 of the Judicial Code, as amended.

Jurisdiction, etc.

Vol. 36, p. 1136; U.S.C., p. 897.

Approved, June 26, 1934.

AN ACT

June 26, 1934.
[S. 2809.]
[Private, No. 397.]

Conferring jurisdiction upon the Court of Claims to hear and determine the claims of the International Arms and Fuze Company, Incorporated.

International Arms and Fuze Company, Incorporated.
Claims of, referred to Court of Claims.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Court of Claims, notwithstanding the lapse of time or any statute of limitations or any defense because of any awards previously made by the War Department or other authority of the United States or any alleged acceptances thereof by the International Arms and Fuze Company, Incorporated, to hear and determine, upon the basis of just compensation, the claims of the said International Arms and Fuze Company, Incorporated, growing out of contracts numbered G–1048–559–A, dated January 1, 1918, and P–19219–4797–A, dated November 5, 1918, with the United States and the amendments and modifications thereof: Provided, however, That from any decision or judgment rendered in any suit presented under the authority of this Act a writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of the United States may be applied for by either party thereto, as is provided by law in other cases.

Proviso.
Writ of certiorari allowed either party to U.S. Supreme Court.

Approved, June 26, 1934.
