Silver certificates may reissue.

(f) When any silver certificates issued under the provisions of this section are redeemed or received into the Treasury from any source whatsoever, and belong to the United States, they shall not be retired, canceled, or destroyed, but shall be reissued and paid out again and kept in circulation; but nothing herein shall prevent the cancelation and destruction of mutilated certificates and the issue of other certificates of like denomination in their stead, as provided by law.

Cancellation, etc., of mutilated certificates.

Rules to be prescribed.

(g) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this section.

Federal Reserve Act, amendment.
Vol. 38, p. 271.
U.S.C., p. 287.

SEC. 46. Section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, is amended by inserting immediately after paragraph (c) thereof the following new paragraph:

Emergency due to credit expansion.
Federal Reserve Board may so declare, and modify reserve balances, etc.

"Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the Federal Reserve Board, upon the affirmative vote of not less than five of its members and with the approval of the President, may declare that an emergency exists by reason of credit expansion, and may by regulation during such emergency increase or decrease from time to time, in its discretion, the reserve balances required to be maintained against either demand or time deposits."

Approved, May 12, 1933.
