JOINT RESOLUTION

June 15, 1936.
[S. J. Res. 267.]
[Pub. Res., No. 105.]

Authorizing the President to invite foreign countries to participate in the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, in the city of New York during the year 1939.

New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated.
Preamble.

President requested to invite participation
by foreign countries.

Whereas there is to be held at New York City during the year 1939 a world's fair, which has for its purpose the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the inauguration of the first President of the United States of America and of the establishment of the national government in the city of New York; and Whereas, because of its location and purpose, its scope and aims, said world's fair is deserving of the support and encouragement of the Government of the United States of America: Therefore be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and respectfully requested by proclamation, or in such manner as he may deem proper, to invite foreign countries and nations to such proposed world's fair with a request that they participate therein.

Approved, June 15, 1936.

JOINT RESOLUTION

June 15, 1936.
[S. J. Res. 151.]
[Pub. Res., No. 106.]

Making provision for a national celebration of the bicentenary of the birth of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, wealthiest signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Bicentenary of birth of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.
Preamble.

Whereas Charles Carroll of Carrollton during his lifetime of nearly a century rendered services of paramount importance to his country; and Whereas on February 18, 1776, more than four months before the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, John Adams stated that "in the cause of American liberty, his zeal, fortitude, and perserverance¹ have been so conspicuous that he is said to be marked out for a peculiar vengeance by the friends of administration; but he continues to hazard his all, his immense fortune, the largest in America, and his life"; and
