AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

Virginia the judge appointed pursuant to the authority granted by this Act shall become the district judge for the northern district of West Virginia and no successor shall be appointed to the vacancy thus occurring in the position created by this Act.

Approved, June 22, 1936.

[CHAPTER 696.]

AN ACT

June 22, 1936.
[S. 3344.]
[Public, No. 746.]

To appoint one additional judge of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern and Western Districts of Kentucky.

Kentucky eastern and western judicial districts.
Additional judge authorized for.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, one additional judge of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern and Western Districts of Kentucky. The judge shall be a resident of the State of Kentucky and shall possess the same powers, perform the same duties, and receive the same compensation as the present judges of the respective districts.

Approved, June 22, 1936.

[CHAPTER 697.]

AN ACT

June 22, 1936.
[S. 3488.]
[Public, No. 747.]

To provide for an examination and survey to determine the best utilization of the surplus waters of the San Juan River and the Animas River and to determine the feasibility and cost of storing such waters and of diverting them to the Rio Chama and Rio Grande.

San Juan, etc., Rivers.
Survey to determine best utilization of surplus waters, etc., authorized.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause an examination and survey to be made to determine the best utilization of the surplus waters of the San Juan River, a tributary of the Colorado River, and to determine the best possible use of such waters in the San Juan Basin without injury to the present users of the waters of the San Juan River and by diversion if feasible of a portion of such surplus waters to the Rio Chama, a tributary of the Rio Grande River, and to report the results of such surveys and examinations to the Congress as soon as possible. There is authorized to be appropriated the sum of $50,000, or so much thereof[1] may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this Act: Provided, That $17,500 of the above sum may be expended for a similar examination and survey of the surplus waters of the Animas River, a tributary of the Rio Grande River[1], with a view to the diversion, if feasible, of a portion of such surplus waters to the Rio Grande River.

Report to Congress.

Sum authorized.

Proviso.
Similar examination of Animas River.

Approved, June 22, 1936.

[CHAPTER 698.]

AN ACT

June 22, 1936.
[S. 3805.]
[Public, No. 748.]

To authorize the Secretary of the Interior to reserve certain lands on the public domain in Nevada for addition to the Walker River Indian Reservation.

Walker River Indian Reservation, Nev.
Certain public lands added to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to set aside not to exceed one hundred and seventy-one thousand two hundred acres, or so much thereof as he may deem advisable, of the public-domain

Location.

[1] So in original.