AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. George F. Freeman.

July 19, 1935.
[S. 475.]
[Private, No. 150.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the requirements of sections 15 to 20, both inclusive, of the Act entitled "An Act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes", approved September 7, 1916, as amended, are hereby waived in the case of the late Doctor George F. Freeman, formerly employed by the Department of Agriculture as director of the Agriculture Experiment Station, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, who died on September 16, 1930, and whose death is alleged to have resulted from injuries sustained in the course of such employment, and the United States Employees' Compensation Commission is authorized and directed to consider and act upon any claim which may be filed with such Commission by Mrs. George F. Freeman, widow of such Doctor George F. Freeman, within one year from the date of enactment of this Act, for compensation under the provisions of such Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, for the death of such Doctor George F. Freeman; but compensation, if any, shall be paid from and after the date of enactment of this Act. Such payments of compensation shall be made out of funds heretofore or hereafter appropriated for the payment of awards under the provisions of such Act, as amended.
