AN ACT

August 7, 1935. [H. R. 670.] [Private, No. 162.]

Conferring jurisdiction in the Court of Claims to hear and determine the claim of George B. Gates.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Court of Claims of the United States, notwithstanding the lapse of time or the statute of limitation and the fact that George B. Gates was an employee of the United States as a draftsman at the Boston Navy Yard when he made his invention, and notwithstanding the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1910, and the amendatory Act approved July 1, 1918, to hear, adjudicate, and render judgment on the claim of the said George B. Gates for compensation for the use and manufacture by or for the United States of an invention of said George B. Gates described in and covered by Letters Patent Numbered 997616, issued by the Patent Office of the United States July 11, 1911. That the claim of George B. Gates now pending in the Court of Claims, Numbered 17320, pursuant to Senate resolution considered and agreed to February 9, 1920, be dismissed: Provided, however, That the testimony and exhibits heretofore adduced on behalf of claimant and the defendant constitute the record in the present claim for the decision by the Court of Claims.

George B. Gates. Claim of, submitted to Court of Claims.

Statute of limitation waived. Vol. 36, p. 851; Vol. 40, p. 705.

Pending claim dismissed.

Proviso. Evidence.

SEC. 2. From any decision or judgment rendered under the authority of this Act application for appellate review may be made by either party in conformity to the law applicable to suits in the Court of Claims by owners of patents under and by virtue of the statute of June 25, 1910, as amended by the Act of July 1, 1918; and any judgment in favor of claimant for compensation for the use of his invention shall be paid in the same manner as other judgments for compensation rendered by the Court of Claims.

Appeal by either party.

Manner of paying judgments.

Approved, August 7, 1935.
