AN ACT

For the relief of Lawrence S. Copeland.

August 7, 1935.

[H. R. 4820.]

[Private, No. 188.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States is hereby authorized and directed to adjust and settle the claim of Lawrence S. Copeland for loss and damage resulting from his purchase of a Peerless sedan automobile sold to him April 7, 1930, by Federal prohibition authorities, the possession of which automobile he was compelled by subsequent judicial proceedings to relinquish to its alleged owner, and to allow not to exceed $500 in full and final settlement of all claims arising out of the transaction. There is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for payment of the claim: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, on account of services rendered in connection with said claim. It shall be unlawful for any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, to exact, collect, withhold, or receive any sum of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof on account of services rendered in connection with said claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Lawrence S. Copeland.
