CHAP. XLVII. — An Act making appropriations for the support of the Military Academy for the year ending the thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

Appropriations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the Military Academy, for the year ending on the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and forty-six:

Pay.

For the pay of officers, instructors, cadets, and musicians, seventy-nine thousand four hundred and sixty dollars;

Subsistence.

For commutation of subsistence, three thousand five hundred and seventy-seven dollars;

Forage of officers' horses.

For commutation of forage for officers' horses, two thousand five hundred and ninety-two dollars;

Clothing of officers' servants.

For clothing for their servants, four hundred and twenty dollars;

Incidental and contingent expenses.

For repairs and improvements, fuel and apparatus, forage of public horses and oxen, stationery, printing and other incidental and contingent expenses, twenty-two thousand dollars;

Barracks.

For the building of barracks for cadets, thirty thousand dollars: Provided, That this appropriation, and the unexpended balance of the one heretofore made for this object, shall be applied exclusively to the completion of that portion of the barracks which is designed to accommodate the cadets usually quartered in the "old south barracks."

Pay of a cadet.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That from and after the thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and forty-five, the pay of a cadet shall be twenty-four dollars per month, in lieu of the present pay and emoluments.

APPROVED, March 3, 1845.

Statute II.
March 3, 1845.

CHAP. XLVIII.—An Act for the admission of the States of Iowa and Florida into the Union. (a)

Preamble.

Whereas, the people of the Territory of Iowa did, on the seventh day of October, eighteen hundred and forty-four, by a convention of delegates called and assembled for that purpose, form for themselves a constitution and State government; and whereas, the people of the Territory of Florida did, in like manner, by their delegates, on the eleventh day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, form for themselves a constitution and State government, both of which said constitutions are republican; and said conventions having asked the admission of their respective Territories into the Union as States, on equal footing with the original States:

Act of March 3, 1845, ch. 75, and ch. 76.

Iowa and Florida declared to be States, on an equal footing with the original States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the States of Iowa and Florida be, and the same are hereby, declared to be States of the United States of America, and are hereby admitted into the Union on equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatsoever.

Boundaries of Iowa.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the following shall be the boundaries of the said State of Iowa, to wit: Beginning at the mouth of the Des Moines river, at the middle of the Mississippi, thence by the middle of the channel of that river to a parallel of latitude passing through the mouth of the Mankato, or Blue-Earth river, thence west along the said parallel of latitude to a point where it is intersected by a meridian line, seventeen degrees and thirty minutes west of the meridian of Washington city, thence due south to the northern boundary line of the State of Missouri, thence eastwardly following that boundary to the
