AN ACT

For the relief of J. L. Myers.

J. L. Myers.
Payment to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury allocated by the President for the maintenance and operation of the Civilian Conservation Corps, to J. L. Myers, Texarkana, Texas-Arkansas, the sum of $113.50. Such sum shall be in full satisfaction against the United States for the actual medical and other expenses incurred by the said J. L. Myers on account of personal injuries received by him, his wife, and minor son when his automobile was in collision, near Searcy, Arkansas, on December 31, 1935, with a truck in the service of the Civilian Conservation Corps:

AN ACT

Conferring jurisdiction on the United States District Court for the Northern District of California to hear, determine, and render judgment upon the suit in equity of Theodore Fieldbrave against the United States.

Theodore Fieldbrave.
Jurisdiction conferred upon district court to hear suit of.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the United States District Court for the Northern District of California to hear, determine, and render judgment upon any suit in equity brought by Theodore Fieldbrave against the United States for the purpose of setting aside the default decree of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California rendered August 9, 1924, canceling the certificate of naturalization of such Theodore Fieldbrave.

Time limitation for instituting suit.

SEC. 2. Such suit in equity may be instituted at any time within six months after the enactment of this Act, notwithstanding the lapse of time or any statute of limitations.

Proceedings.

Proceedings for the determination of any such suit shall be had and appeals from any judgment or decree entered therein shall be taken in the same manner as in the case of suits in equity over which such court has jurisdiction under paragraph (1) of section 24 of the Judicial Code, as amended.

28 U. S. C. § 41.

Approved, January 13, 1938.
