[CHAPTER 505]

AN ACT

For the relief of Gordon L. Cheasley.

June 16, 1938
[H. R. 7297]
[Private, No. 620]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of Labor is directed to cancel forthwith the outstanding warrants of arrest, orders of deportation, warrants of deportation, and bonds, if any, in the case of the alien Gordon L. Cheasley, and is directed not to issue any further such warrants or orders in the case of such alien, insofar as such future warrants or orders are based on the unlawful entry of such alien into the United States prior to the enactment of this Act or on perjury or false statements in connection with such entry into the United States or with any application heretofore made for a reentry permit or extension thereof. Hereafter, for the purposes of the immigration and naturalization laws, the alien, Gordon L. Cheasley, shall be considered to have been at Rouses Point, New York, on September 2, 1935, lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence.

Gordon L. Cheasley.
Cancelation of orders of deportation, etc.

Admission deemed lawful.

Approved, June 16, 1938.

AN ACT

For the relief of Albert Richard Jeske.

June 16, 1938
[H. R. 7606]
[Private, No. 621]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the immigration laws, relating to the issuance of immigration visas for admission to the United States for permanent residence and relating to admissions at ports of entry of aliens as immigrants for permanent residence in the United States, the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 875), as amended (U. S. C., title 8, sec. 136 (e)), which exclude from admission into the United States "persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony, or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude", shall not hereafter be held to apply to Albert Richard Jeske, who is the husband of Martha Jeske, an American citizen, on account of offenses alleged to have been committed in connection with obtaining a passport for admission to the United States. If he is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws an immigration visa may be issued and admission granted to Albert Richard Jeske under this Act upon application hereafter filed.

Albert Richard Jeske.
Issuance of immigration visa to, authorized.

39 Stat. 875.
8 U. S. C. § 136 (e).

Approved, June 16, 1938.
