[CHAPTER 508]

AN ACT

June 16, 1938
[H. R. 7998]
[Private, No. 623]

For the relief of The First National Bank and Trust Company of Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

First National Bank and Trust Company of Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo, Mich.
Payment to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to The First National Bank and Trust Company of Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo, Michigan, the sum of $2,001.86 in full satisfaction of its claim against the United States for a refund on twenty-one invalid postal money orders, for which it was paid by the postmaster at Kalamazoo, Michigan, and which sum the said bank and trust company subsequently refunded to the Post Office Department, said loss having resulted from the fraudulent negotiation of said money orders by one Herman M. Sharpsteen, a former postal employee at Scotts, Michigan, between December 4, 1933, and January 16, 1934, and payment by said bank and trust company without fault or negligence on its part.

Recovery by United States from Grace E. Gibson.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the recovery by the United States from Grace E. Gibson, former postmaster at Scotts, Michigan, or the surety on her official bond, for the losses suffered by the United States as the result of the stealing and fraudulent negotiation of twenty-one postal money orders by said Herman M. Sharpsteen.

Limitation on attorney's, etc., fees.

SEC. 3. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act, or credited to any account by virtue of this Act, in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with said claims, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty for violation.

Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved, June 16, 1938.
