unlawful entry of such aliens into the United States prior to the enactment of this Act. Hereafter, for the purposes of the immigration and naturalization laws, such aliens shall be considered to have been at Northport, Washington, on July 14, 1936, lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence.

Admission deemed lawful.

Approved, June 16, 1938.

[CHAPTER 510]

AN ACT

For the relief of Louis Michael Bregantic.

June 16, 1938
[H. R. 8743]
[Private, No. 625]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the administration of the immigration and naturalization laws the Secretary of Labor is hereby authorized and directed to cancel the warrant of arrest and the order of deportation against Louis Michael Bregantic heretofore issued on the grounds that on (date unknown) admission to the United States had been fraudulently gained pursuant to the commission of a passport or visa offense which, subsequent to such admission, has heretofore been held by the Attorney General of the United States to be within the purview of "crimes involving moral turpitude", and thereupon Louis Michael Bregantic shall hereafter be deemed to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence at (port unknown) on (date unknown). Any declaration of intention to become a citizen or any petition for citizenship heretofore filed by or any admission to citizenship ordered and certificate of naturalization heretofore issued to Louis Michael Bregantic which were predicated upon the claim of lawful admission to the United States for permanent residence on (date unknown) shall hereafter be deemed valid unless the original seven-year period of validity of such declaration of intention has heretofore expired or Louis Michael Bregantic has heretofore been found otherwise not eligible to such benefit under the naturalization laws.

Louis Michael Bregantic.
Cancelation of order of deportation, etc.

Petition for citizenship, etc.

Approved, June 16, 1938.
