AN ACT

For the relief of the State of New York Insurance Department as liquidator.

June 23, 1938
[H. R. 2560]
[Private, No. 680]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the State of New York Insurance Department as liquidator of the Concord Casualty and Surety Company the sum of $5,500. Such sum shall be in full settlement of its claim against the United States for the loss sustained by such company on account of the forfeiture to the United States of a bail bond executed by such company and conditioned upon the delivery in court of one James Burke, alias Jack Corbett, alias Noble John Moore. By reason of the nonappearance of the said James Burke, alias Jack Corbett, alias Noble John Moore, such bail bond was declared forfeited in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on or about October 5, 1933, and on or about October 11, 1933, such company paid to the clerk of such court the sum of $10,000 in full satisfaction of such bond. Subsequently, the said James Burke, alias Jack Corbett, alias Noble John Moore, was arrested, sentenced, and imprisoned in the Federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pennsyl-
