Army transport docks at the San Francisco, California, port of embarkation, between July 31, 1934, and November 24, 1934, both inclusive, the sum appearing opposite the name of each such person in the column designated "Total Cash". In each case such sum represents the amount of additional pay equal to that provided by the terms of an award made by the National Longshoremen's Board. Such award provided for a retroactive increase of pay from July 31, 1934, but such increase of pay was not received by such persons until after November 24, 1934.

Time for filing application.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay any sum authorized to be paid by section 1 of this Act only upon the filing of an application therefor within one year after the date of enactment of this Act by the person duly certified by the Quartermaster General to be entitled to such sum.

Limitation on attorney's, etc., fees.

SEC. 3. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Penalty for violation.

Approved, June 25, 1938.

[H. R. 10171]
[Private, No. 733]

To amend the Act entitled "An Act giving jurisdiction to the Court of Claims to hear and determine the claim of the Butler Lumber Company, Incorporated."

Butler Lumber Company, Inc.
Additional claims of, referred to Court of Claims.
44 Stat. 1812.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act entitled "An Act giving jurisdiction to the Court of Claims to hear and determine the claim of the Butler Lumber Company, Incorporated", approved March 3, 1927, be, and the same is hereby, amended to give the Court of Claims of the United States jurisdiction to hear and determine claims in addition to those already adjudicated by the Court of Claims in the case of the Butler Lumber Company against the United States, decided December 7, 1931 (73 Ct. Cls. 270), in favor of the Butler Lumber Company, as follows: A claim for the loss of land, timber, lumber, machinery, and cash through foreclosure in the total sum of $95,641, resulting from the furnishing of piling in the erection of a fueling station on Craney Island, in Norfolk Harbor, Virginia, which station was erected under a contract dated May 21, 1921, between W. S. Rendle and the United States Shipping Board, representing the United States of America, notwithstanding the said judgment of the Court of Claims, laches, or the statute of limitations. Suit in the Court of Claims may be brought by the receivers of the Butler Lumber Company, Incorporated, appointed by the Law and Equity Court of Richmond City, Virginia.

Approved, June 25, 1938.
