[CHAPTER 647]

August 10, 1939
[H. J. Res. 272]
[Pub. Res., No. 49]

JOINT RESOLUTION

To provide for the observance and celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of the city of Gallipolis, Ohio.

Gallipolis, Ohio, sesquicentennial celebration.
Preamble.

Whereas the settlement of the Northwest Territory which commenced at Marietta, Ohio, in 1788 started the greatest movement of pioneer settlers in the history of the world; and

Whereas in 1790 the third settlement in that great program of development was made at Gallipolis, Ohio; and

Whereas the settlement of Gallipolis was made by the famous "French five hundred", who with their families came direct from their native France; and

Whereas by reason of the inestimable services rendered the American Colonies by the French Nation and thousands of their patriotic citizens led by General Lafayette there has been established an indissoluble bond of friendship between the French Nation and the United States; and

Whereas there is no more fitting time or place to again prove this friendship than at Gallipolis, Ohio, on the occasion of its celebration of its sesquicentennial in 1940; and

Whereas the citizens of Gallipolis, a small city of seven thousand population, have planned and will carry out at great personal sacrifice of time, energy, and wealth a season of pagentry, patriotic demonstrations, and cultural entertainments that will rank with the best that can be produced anywhere, regardless of expense: Therefore be it
