JOINT RESOLUTION

April 23, 1941
[H. J. Res. 129]
[Public Law 40]

To amend the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution authorizing Federal participation in the New York World's Fair, 1939", to provide for an extension in the life of the Commission, to authorize the transfer of property to other departments and branches of the Government without consideration, and for other purposes.

N. Y. World's Fair Commission, extension.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the life of the United States New York World's Fair Commission established by the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution authorizing Federal participation in the New York World's Fair, 1939", approved July 9, 1937, as amended, is extended for all purposes for such period as said Commission may determine up through but not after August 31, 1941, so that it may complete its undertakings connected with its participation in the New York World's Fair, 1939, and in the New York World's Fair, 1940, and that the Commissioner is authorized, under the direction of the Commission, in the disposition of the materials, property, buildings, and so forth, of the Commission to dispose of the same by outright transfer without consideration to such an extent and to such of the various executive departments and independent offices and establishments of the Government of the United States as he may determine, with the consent of the department or branch concerned, and account therefor.
