AN ACT

For the relief of Major R. Lee.

Maj. R. Lee.
Credit in accounts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to allow credit in the accounts of Major (formerly First Lieutenant) R. Lee, former disbursing officer, United States Engineer Office, Memphis, Tennessee, in the sum of $790.44, representing the remaining amount disallowed in the accounts of the said Major R. Lee, disbursing symbol [redacted], because of an overpayment of $790.44 made to F. D. Harvey and Company, Incorporated, Memphis, Tennessee, on voucher numbered 12108, dated December 7, 1932, under contract W–1092–eng. 2866, dated October 3, 1932, the said overpayment being uncollectible and the firm no longer in existence:

Proviso.

Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
