[CHAPTER 243]

AN ACT

For the relief of Tom Gentry.

June 24, 1941
[H. R. 3399]
[Private Law 113]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Tom Gentry, of Marion, Illinois, the sum of $3,008. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States by the said Tom Gentry on account of personal injuries sustained by him when the car in which he was riding collided with an automobile in the service of the Works Progress Administration on November 18, 1939, on West Main Street, Marion, Illinois: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Tom Gentry.
Payment to.

Proviso.

Approved, June 24, 1941.
