[CHAPTER 267]

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Mildred Maag.

June 20, 1944
[H. R. 2711]
[Private Law 306]

Mrs. Mildred Maag.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Mildred Maag, Kent, Ohio, the sum of $2,857.03. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States on account of personal injuries, medical, hospital, nursing, and incidental expenses sustained by her on October 4, 1942, in Delaware, Ohio, when the automobile which she was driving was struck by a United States Government truck engaged in hauling supplies for the Three Hundred and Thirty-third Engineer Regiment, United States Army, stationed at the Quartermaster Depot, Marion, Ohio: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 20, 1944.

[CHAPTER 273]

AN ACT

For the relief of Claude R. Whitlock, and for other purposes.

June 22, 1944
[S. 1848]
[Private Law 307]

Claude R. Whitlock.
Credit in accounts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to allow credit in the accounts of Claude R. Whitlock, superintendent and special disbursing agent, Rosebud Indian Agency, Rosebud, South Dakota, for the sum of $3,058.27, plus accrued interest thereon, representing public and trust funds embezzled by Theodore A. Garnette, a former employee of said Indian Agency.
