[CHAPTER 236]

AN ACT

For the relief of Harold J. Grim.

July 2, 1945
[H. R. 1091]
[Private Law 115]

Harold J. Grim.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Harold J. Grim, Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, the sum of $2,087.40. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims against the United States for property damage resulting from the destruction of the Piper coupe airplane NC-37977, on May 21, 1944, when it was struck where it was parked on Wing's Field, Ambler, Pennsylvania, by a landing United States Navy airplane, model F-4U-1, bureau number 02438: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved July 2, 1945.
