[CHAPTER 370]

AN ACT

For the relief of Lily L. Carren.

September 21, 1945
[H. R. 999]
[Private Law 188]

Lily L. Carren.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Lily L. Carren, Hayward, California, the sum of $3,500. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Lily L. Carren against the United States for personal injuries and damage to personal property sustained when she was struck by a United States Navy shore patrol station wagon on November 6, 1943, while walking across the intersection of A and Castro Streets, Hayward, California: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 21, 1945.
